THE SENIOR COMMITTEE

NEW SENATORS CHOSEN BY STUDENT BODY

College Marshal and Secretary of Athletic Association

The annual elections for the College Senate were held yesterday in the Union. For the first time in the history of the student governing body two men were allowed to represent the Neutral Group who have been clamoring for some such reform in representation during the past academic year.

Charles T. Kingston of St. Anthony Hall, Edwin G. Gallaway of St. Mark's, Robert H. Dast of Delta Phi, Seymour E. Smith of Alpha Chi Rho, Gustav H. Ulbig of Delta Kappa Epsilon, Edward J. Brewer of Sigma Nu, and Charles O. Bierkan of Alpha Tau Omega were the fraternity men chosen. Rex J. Howard and John R. Boswell represent the Neutral Body.

Three men, along with Andrew G. Onderdonk of Alpha Delta Phi, will serve a term of one year in the Senate. Onderdonk was appointed Treasurer of the Senate for next year at a recent meeting of the retiring

I believe that the group giving the most will feel a sense of pride in the fact that they have represented the students of the college for the past year. The students who have taken the initiative to propose changes in the constitution have done so because they believe in the principles of democracy and equality. The Senate has had a positive impact on our college, and I believe that it will continue to do so in the future. The students who have taken on leadership roles have done so because they believe in the principles of democracy and equality, and I believe that they will continue to do so in the future.

The Senate has been successful in implementing new ideas and policies that benefit all students. The Senate has also been successful in representing the interests of the students, and I believe that it will continue to do so in the future. The Trinity Track team lost its first dual meet of the season to Union College by a score of 77 to 49 last week. In spite of the fact that the damp, chilly weather held up their performances, the Union runners turned in exceptional times in most of the running events, allowing Trinity only one first place in eight races. The Blue and Gold team was stronger than its opponent in the field events, however, and was able to hold the lead obtained by the Union team through its power on the track.

The Trinity College Union is the strongest team that Trinity has met in a year, and due to the fact that it has been trained under exceptionally intense conditions.

The closest and most thrilling events were the 220-yard low hurdles and the 440-yard dash. Bob Daut of Trinity, defeated by his Union opponents in the high hurdles, was able to hold the lead in the 220-yard dash. As a result of the race, Sullivan of Union got fast starts and maintained a slight lead until the last. Coming off Thayrer’s challenging spurts and almost winning the race, the captain, the Trinity captain, was defeated in the quarter mile, his time of 58.8 seconds was considerably behind the best time made in this event at Trinity. Thompson and McCook gave a good second and third, with the high point men for Trinity, Daut and Thompson also turning in good times. Waring with Walker taking first places in the high hurdles and broad jump.

Old Fox of Boardman Refuses to Grant Request of Simpering 'Tripod' Reporter

Ye screech of Old Uncle's laboeratory, and, seeing that the Grand Old Fox had come there in a scienti cated rused, and, seeing that the Grand Old Fox had come there in a scientific mindedness, for to speak of science, the Old Uncle does not notice him. At last Uncle Tom, as he is known to his boys, laid down that he would do nothing for nothing. This was called "La Vie Parisienne," and perished at the interlude over the top of his bonnet, a very thin one.

"What you want, Son?" he asked in his childish base, flacking an imaginary bit of lint from the top of his bald head.

"I represent the Tripod," said the tot, crying a bit.

"I won't sign no papers," said the said the old fox, blushing with awe, "I can't in a way you your last invention, you ran.

"Oh, paah," said the sage strangely, touching his spectacles. "You youngster's drivin me crazy bust that out.

"Or eat is match?" asked Renecer, his beady eyes searching the other's spectacles.

"That's telling," said the old fox of Boardman, flaking a handkerchief from his nose. "You know, the thought color of "L'Agape-Midi d'Ucron" filled the room.

It was found that in his childish trouble, his eyes twinkling rogishly as a seal, he was a good old fox. It's true, you see the Colonel, and Bud are after this 'vention."

"Over to you," said the old fox, and the tot was left crying a bit. "Oh, K. Frankenstein," he said the striping, moved despite himself.

The tot ran, shedding his cuff at a sparrow that flatted him. "Yo' rotten!" kissed Young Wild West as a shot rang out in the gamblin' den. Yo Mancho had struck two.

DR. OGLIBY GIVES TALK IN CHAPEL ON FREEDOM

President Speaks for Independence Taking Text from Epistle of St. Peter

In a sermon preached at the 11 o'clock Service in the Chapel at Trinity on Sunday afternoon, Dr. Ogilby discussed the significance of the Epistle of St. Peter and stressed the importance of the theme of freedom and how it is pertinent to our time.

Dr. Ogilby opened his talk by Dr. Ogilby stressed the importance and essence of freedom. He read passages in our lives, and warned us against the neglect of freedom. The spirit of every college should be free, he said, and in spite of certain restrictions, we should all forge ahead with freedom.

"Freedom of Thought After Truth" should be the motto of every college. It is thought and will. In the beginning of the Epistle there is a request to be free, he said, and in line with "Honor the king.

"You are the people," said the gray-bearded, when dealing with form of an attempt. "You are the people, my brothers."

"And the next several lines somewhere on e because taking T e x t fro from Epistle examination schedule for their kind.

"Remembering that, my brothers, there are it. The spirit of every college should be free, he said, and in spite of certain restrictions, we should all forge ahead with freedom.

DR. SWEET SPEAKS

In a recent lecture, Dr. Ogilby discussed the significance of the large number of applicants for admission to the medical schools of the country, and of the ways in which the colleges can help their students in their application to medical schools. He pointed out the importance of the spirit of medicine and the dedication of the students.

"Do not be afraid to begin your careers of study early," he said. "The sooner you start, the sooner you will be ready to assume the responsibilities of being a physician."
DEBATING WIN PLAUDITS FOR RECENT SHOWING

Letters Bear Testimony to Success of Atheneum in Radio Debate

Both the written and verbal verdict of interested radio listeners gave the Atheneum team high marks for its performance in a recent broadcast margin over the Wesleyan Debating League in the radio debate broadcast from WICC on Monday night, April 23.
Mr. Senf and Mr. Heimann are to be congratulated upon their suc-

Only seven letters were received from the radio audiences, but five of those gave the decision to Trinity.

One letter came from New York, one from Massachusetts, and the rest from Connecticut. One was received from a Connecticut College student who stated that he did not know that Trinity was the winner and that the last speaker, Mr. Senf, had prepared a stirring and forceful speech.

The amount of radio mail, though not as large as usual, is still evidence of the general interest among people who heard the debate. It is generally thought that Trinity prepared a preponderance of evidence and that the affirmative side, having the burden of proof, was unable to advance any one overwhelming argument.

An indication of the preparation
that went into this debate was evidence in the amounts in which both Mr. Senf and Mr. Heimann anticipated and refuted all the arguments of the opposing side. Wesleyan had delivered the same question three times before Trinity entered the debate. The students and that Trinity was the winner of the debate was received by the air waves.

Because of the fact that the teams had only one hour on the air, the four speakers were not as fast as the usual Wesleyan points.

There is a wide interest in radio debating and almost every letter
stated that the writer looked forward to future meetings.

In the recent international broadcast
from New York University and Oxenford colleges on a formal debate was exceptionally well received. Newspapers in and around the country pointed out that the Wesleyan-Denitry debate and the public's enthusiasm for this radio dis-

Nine men of Squad to Travel to Worcester Tomorrow for Big Meet

Nine members of Trinity's track squad will represent the University to-morrow, May 13, to take part in the annual Eastern Intercolligate Meet which is to be held on the Worcester College fields.

Field events will be run off in the afternoon with the finals taking place in the evening.

Coach Ousting's men are in good physical shape and hope to do better than the showing made by the Blue and Gold representatives at this meet last year. At that time Trinity finished fourth in the meet.

The men making the trip are:

- Captain Swanson, Adams, Thayer, Kellam, Dutt, Winter, Harris, Gladwin, and Alexander.

Swanson was unable to run last year due to the fact that he was bothered by a bad cold, but he is ready to do his best in the half-mile this year.

Swanson, who also specializes in this event, will be his rival in the 400 meters. He also kept on active competition last year since transfers were not allowed to participate in track, then he will return in Trinity in the javelin throw and broad jump.

Although he is still feeling the effects of a bad cold, will be entered in the high and broad jump.

A point winner last year in three events, will run the high and low hurdles and will also partake in the discus throw.

Winter will represent Trinity in the high and broad jump.

Alexei, although he will participate in the discus throw and the shot put.

Harris will run the mile, Gladwin, the two-mile race.

Rhode Island State, the winner of last year's meet, is a favorite to re-

At the same time the Secretary of the Athletic Association will be chosen from among three more candidates, William J. Angell, John S. McCoa, and Territt H. Mowbray. Res. J. Howard, Charles T. INTRAMURAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT STARTS

Alpha Chi Rho, Alpha Delta Phi and Alpha Tau Kappa Score First Round Wins

The Intramural Tennis Tournament got under way recently, despite inclement weather, with three of the fraternities teams surviving the first round. Alpha Chi Rho opened the competition by blasting a 4-1 defeat over Delta Kappa Epsilon. Alpha Delta Phi and Alpha Tau Kappa also won its initial start with a 5-2 victory over Delta Kappa Epsilon. Alpha Delta Phi was the other winner in a 5-2 triumph over the Sigma Nu network.

The Alpha Chi Rho men had little trouble with Delta Phi in the singles. Jackson defeated Flaherty and Leo defeated R. Lurie in the doubles, Schramm and S. E. Smith won from P. Adams and Bresina, and Johnson and Butler upset Crawford and Dunn in the only close match. L. Lutz won over Burfield for the sole Delta Phi triumph.

Winners for Alpha Delta Phi were Craig, who defeated Day, and the doubles teams of A. H. Onderdonk and Baldwin, and Haring and Littell. Sigma Nu won two singles matches when Sater upset Purdon, and Ellisworth turned back L. Wadlow.

Delta Kappa Epsilon won two double matches by default, but weakness in the singles caused their defeat as McVane, Custer, and McCurdy all won for Alpha Tau Kappa. Ferris, Cole, and Armstrong played for Delta Kappa Epsilon.
