Track squad will meet Tufts here Saturday

Daut, Kellam and Warner will Lead Blue and Gold in Opening Contest

The track squad, which has been holding daily workouts under the direction of Coaches Oosting and Clark, will open its season against Tufts Saturday at Hartford. Coach Oosting has developed a well-balanced group which appears strong in all events except the javelin, the high jump, the pole vault and the 440, and it is toward these that he will direct his particular efforts between now and Saturday. Last year the Blue and Gold triumphed in this meet, 77-49.

BOOK REVIEW

TENDER IS THE NIGHT, by F. Scott Fitzgerald. Charles Scribner's Sons.

With "Tender is the Night," F. Scott Fitzgerald completes his trilogy on post-war American youth. To those who read his prodigiously, this trilogy is "This Side of Paradise," and "The Great Gatsby". This one fact is ironical, that Scott Fitzgerald's admirers have made for him. He is recommended without qualification—J. L. St.

CLASS DUES AND ELECTIONS

The recently revised constitution of the College Senate, provisions of which are made public in this issue of the Tripod, reminds us that "Only those students who have paid their class assessments shall be eligible to vote or eligible for nomination."

The second point of discussion centers within the phrase "shall be eligible to vote or eligible for nomination."

The Senate undoubtedly has been discouraged by the failure of most of the college body to attend the dance given in the Dining Hall on April 27. All those who possibly intend to contribute to the idea of having such dances regularly. The Tripod has long advocated frequent informal dances, and now thinks there might be a good grounds for giving the college a second chance to show that such dances would be supported. The last dance came only five days after the Easter vacation, and there was time enough to advertise it properly or for students to get dates. If the Senate will try again, this time with adequate publicity and an announce­ment of its purpose weeks in advance, we are sure the college will be able to depend on it to support it.

A SUBLIME DISTINCTION

Last week a group of students gathered a series of relatively harmless pranks by the Chapel and inaugurating in a bit of horseplay which, while it did not result in the doing of serious damage, did on the minds of the seniors. The seniors, in their turn, thought that in so acting they were in accord with the general sentiment of the undergraduate body, which has protested and, we believe, successfully. It is certain that this is not by the college community.

There is entirely too much of this spirit abroad on the campus. We have condemned compulsory chapel previously, and we do not approve of it any more now, but we do feel a profound respect for the Chapel and what it stands for, not for the way in which its services are forced upon us, but for the attitude with which our college community services.

"It's toasted"

✓ Luckies are all-ways kind to your throat

We think you'd be impressed if you saw Luckies being made. You'd see those clean, silky center leaves—and you really wouldn't have to be a tobacco expert to know why farmers get higher prices for them. They are the mildest leaves—they taste better.

You'd be impressed by Lucky Strike's famous process—"It's toasted"—designed for your throat protection. And we know that you'll be truly fascinated when you see how Luckies are rolled round and firm, and fully packed with long golden strands of choice tobaccos. That's why Luckies "keep in condition"—why you'll find that Luckies do not dry out—an important point to every smoker. And you'll get the full meaning of our statement that Luckies are always in all-ways kind to your throat.
