TRINITY SWIMMERS BEAT UNION COLLEGE TEAM

Coit, Onderdonk and Relay Team Lower Former Records
In Easy Victory

THIRD STRAIGHT WIN

Mowbray and Hall Also Star
As Blue and Gold Mermen Remain Unbeaten

The swimming team continued its streak of victories by swapping Union College at Schenectady by the score of 50 to 21. When the waters finally calmed, it was discovered that no conference records had been broken by Trinity men. The winners captured all but one of the events. Mowbray and Onderdonk led in scoring with two first places; and Hall and Morton were close behind, each earning six points.

Captain Coit clipped two seconds off his former mark in winning the 200-yard breaststroke. Sinclair of Trin­ity was second in this event.

In the 225-yard swim Onderdonk lowered the record by a little over a second. The old mark was made a year ago by Metzke, who missed third in this race and who won the 440 also. Onderdonk also won the 150-yard backstroke in good time.

Mowbray and Hall earned 16 points for the Blue and Gold, with Coit, second, respectively, in both the 50 and 100-yard dashes. These two later joined Swann and Allen and Nealy and in winning the 400-yard relay, setting a new record for that event.

First and second in the divisive were taken by Keens and Komer of Union. This was the only event in which Union secured two places.

The biggest contest of Trinity men's fourth meet of the season will take place on the other side of the continent when Massachusetts Institute of Technology will send its swimmers to Cambridge, Mass. Two days behind them, the Trinity men will challenge the home teams, and should be in top form for this important meet. It will be the first visit of the new 1934-35 men's team of M. I. T., Trinity and have met.

The Athenaeum Debates

The debate societies have been active in debating subjects. The ATEHNACMA DEBATE WITH PENNSYLVANIA PENDING

Visitors Were Expected to Reach Hartford This Week; Date Uncertain

At a recent meeting of the Ate­nuncan, the college debating society, St Ignatius of Loyola, from the University of Pennsylvania was voted to be the Trinity organization in a formal de­bate. The tentative date was set for Wednesday, February 14, but as the visitors telegraphed they would ar­rive one day late, there is now un­certainty as to the date being held at the present time, as this date is not suitable to the Trinity meeting.

The subject chosen for discussion deals with the question of America's right to intervene in the international problems. The Trinity team has been announced and the members of the subject, and feels it can acquire itself well if the chance arises. No intercommunicating debates have been contested at Trinity for several years, but the topic was selected to be an interesting one for the students to discuss.

SUNDAY NIGHT DANCES

Again it seems time to raise a suggestion which has appeared in these columns before, but with no great results. It has often been suggested in the past that extracurricular activities would be very welcome events if made a weekly occurrence. Those of the past have been sponsored by the Senate and always seem to have been a success, financial and otherwise. The administration would have to consider the matter, but it seems that this recent mid-year period, of which we have not yet learned much, should be the time for the setting up of the Saturday night problem of what to do without going to any great expense. So once again we leave this suggestion on the table, hoping that the some definite action, one way or the other, will be taken.

SCHOLARSHIP

It seems that this recent mid-year period, more than any other term ending, finds at last the Nemesis of the below-average student on her various victims’ heads. He was the reason for this unusual thinning out of the student body?

The fact that so great a number of Trinity students have left seems to have been a success, financial and otherwise. The admission price per couple could be made quite reasonable and still be made a weekly occurrence.

TRACTION PROBLEM

Again it seems time to raise a suggestion which has appeared in these columns before, but with no great results. It has often been suggested in the past that extracurricular activities would be very welcome events if made a weekly occurrence. Those of the past have been sponsored by the Senate and always seem to have been a success, financial and otherwise. WAR TALK

There has been much discussion going lately both in the press and over the radio about the possibility, and more often the probability, of war in the near future. The trend of events occurring in a vein that implies that international conflicts are inevitable stages in the evolution of world affairs. Such a phrase as “if war is inevitable” recently in a warlike garb, the most recent of which is the race for naval armament that appears to be initiated by the nations of the East. Over the radio one hears about “diplomacy strengthened by armament!”, an argument advanced just as forcibly as the old one that the United States should lead the way to lasting peace by setting a good example in armament reduction. Whether we should prepare for war or continue to set the shining example, or whether we are to be called “a nation of peaceable men”, is not to be argued here. The question is: Are Wars Inevitable?

Very few of us are capable of making an exhaustive analysis of armament, but there is one condition of a social nature that is requisite for the flowering of any good healthy war which anyone (not merely the professional propagandist) will recognize with the application of a little common sense. This prerequisite is the right psychological state of the peoples involved.

For over a century the daily newspaper has been a mousetrap of public opinion. It is to be hoped that radio is now beginning to assume that role, also. As a mass we have been compelled from necessity to delegate much of our thinking and opinions to these institutions. But this may not be a dangerous thing if carried on in certain

TRINITY UPSET.
The Trinity fans were widely shaken, however, Stewart scoring on an easy shot with no one near him. The game ended seconds later with Trinity desperately attempting to score. In the preliminary game, the Trinity Jayvees scored their sixth straight win of the season at the expense of the Wesleyan second squad by a 32 to 16 margin. Ferrucci was easily the most outstanding man on the court, scoring seven shots from the floor to lead his team to an easy victory.

Elf Craig, who tossed in five points, was best for the Lakers. The feature story of the evening will be seen when the Delta Phi quintet and the Neutral Blue five meet on Thursday at five o'clock. This game will probably determine the ultimate winner of the National League as both clubs have been undefeated thus far in their three contests.

GOOD TASTE—YOU CAN'T MISS IT
Lucy's finer smoother taste comes from the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. We use only the center leaves for they are the mildest, most tender leaves. And every Lucky is so round, so firm, so fully packed.

NOT the top leaves—they're underdeveloped—they are harsh.

The Cream of the Crop

NOT the bottom leaves—they're inferior in quality—coarse and always sandy!
