SENATE DINNER GUESTS OF PRESIDENT OGILBY

First Meeting of Year Held in Cook—Plans Made for Rally Friday

KELLAM HONORED

Elected to A. A. Council—Trials for Cheerleaders Will Start This Week

The first meeting of the Senate was held in the Alumni Lounge. Prior to the meeting President Ogilby entertained the group at a reception in his office. The discussion at this first session was plans for the rally to be held next week which will be held at the time of the annual election in the Alumni Lounge. The Senate, the Interfraternity Council, the Athletic Association, the Sophomore Dining Club, the Athenaeum, the freshly organized Carilloneurs, the Committee on the Three Houses, the Committee on the Four Houses, the Committee on Senior Ball, and President Ogilby, J. R. McCoig, President of the Senate, sat at the head of the table.

The problem of the Senate, the whole University, as President Ogilby has said, is to make the student, the whole student, an individual who can do his work in the daytime and be a real factor in the problem of the campus at night. The Senate, as an organization, has been given the authority to handle college business. Thus the Senate is the meeting place of the student body, directed by the personification of the student, President Ogilby, to whom the Senate is ever mindful of their purpose to work toward cooperation of program and performance and to follow the plan of the University.
The up roar is beginning to die down. Out of the jump of social whirl, trunks and valves, sharp-eyed fraternities, and grim professors, order is gradually being restored. The joyous and hectic Freshman Week is over, and our hundred and forty neo­phantes begin to realize that there is a place in Trinity's much chastised curriculum for books, that there are such things as phytes.

To the entire Freshman Class and to all transfers and new arrivals for some time to come. Do not use the right kind of counsel if you will realize that your opinions may be used only by the person under whose name it is issued. The holder bears the responsibility for its use.

NOTICE TO ALUMNI

A special offer to all alumni and their immediate families is being made this year by the Athletic Department of Trinity College. Season ticket sales to all home athletic contests may be purchased for the sum of $5. This ticket is non-transferable and must be used only by the person whose name it is issued. The holder must be at least of college age.

A feature of this year's Weslayan game, which will be played at Hartford, will be a section of reserved seats for alumni; the tickets to these sections of the field are sent to all alumni, but if anyone has not received the application, it may be procured from H. O. Phippen, Jr., Alumni Secretary.

CHAPEL REGULATIONS.

The attention of new students is called to the following regulations about attendance at chapel.

1. Services are held every week day at 8 o'clock, with the exception of Wednesday, when it is held at 9:30.

2. Services on Sunday are Communion Service at 8, morning Service at 11, and Vespers at 5.

3. For the purposes of getting the necessary amount of credits for chapel attendance, daily services count one point each, with Wednesday services and Sunday services counting double.

4. At various times during the year, additional services are held, and services count as giving single credits. Short services will be held occasionally, with addresses, at 1 o'clock.

We do suggest that if you take part in something, Trinity will be a better college and you will be a richer student for your participation.

INTELLIGENT SUPPORT

It does not take an astute observer to report that Trinity has the makings of an outstanding football team this year. With sight of the veterans of last fall's fine eleven ready for action, and with enough new material to fill out the team and provide replacements as well, it is obvious that Coach Jesse has the material any Blue and Gold mentor has had at his disposal in many years. It remains for us, the alumni until the season is over. Coach Jesse last year showed us that he is a capable teacher of football. We must give him confidence that goes with the Alums in this year, and realize that he is doing his utmost to put the best possible combination on the field.

In Saturday's game the students will have an opportunity to show how much they are behind the team. There will be cheerleaders to direct organized rooting. Let our conduct then be an example for the rest of the season—intelligent and wholehearted support of men who know better than we what they are about.

SCALE OF VALUES GIVEN BY PRESIDENT OGBLY

Intellectual, Social, Physical and Spiritual Processes Vital to College

FLAGS PRESENTED
Faculty Marches in Procession at Opening Chapel Service
Friday Afternoon

Every student at Trinity should adopt a scale of values to be used throughout his life at College. President Ogbly said in an address delivered at the first Chapel service Fri-Day afternoon. This scale consists of four processes: the intellectual, social, the physical, and the spiritual. The first of these, the intellectual value, is the chief reason for being at College, Dr. Ogbly said. It provides the translation of learning for youth and the training of youth for mental processes, bringing us into contact with men who stand on the frontier of learning.

The President cited the advice of Polonius to Laertes as an example of the social value. Polonius made no mention of intellectual life, but rather spoke of friendship. The ability to make friends is an important contribution to life at College, and should not be neglected. The physical and spiritual values also ing required for junior membership, two plays for senior membership. The officers of this year’s group are: Paul W. Adams, President; Barbara J. Coffey, Business Manager.

The Glee Club is under the direction of Mr. Clarence E. Watters. This group, selected on a competitive basis, is composed of a large repertoire of songs, both old and new, by an orchestra of twelve, a soprano soloist, and is presented two evenings a week in the college and city theaters. This group will be under the direction of Mr. Francis K. Millikan.

The Athenaean is the college de-

The Tripos is the college paper, published once a week throughout the college year for a total of twenty-six issues. A large staff is organized each fall, the new men “hearing” for news on the reportorial board until mid-semester of their second year, when they assume new duties on the editorial board. The two editors and three teachers’ business managers are usually chosen in the middle of their Junior year. John K. McCook is Editor-in-

Chief; Robert M. Roney, Managing

Editor; Oliver McGarvey, Business

Manager of this year’s staff.

The Ivy is the college annual, published each year by members of the Junior Class. In this publication are

The Rifle Club is an organization with its own fifty-foot range in the basement of Jarvis Hall. Intercollegiate postal and shoulder-to-shoulder matches are held throughout the year with .22 and .30 caliber rifles. Teams for each match are selected on a competitive basis. The Rifle Club is a member of the National Rifle Association; Robert M.

Roney is President; Oliver F. Johnson, Vice-President, and T. Lowry Sinclair, Secretary-Treasurer.

SENATE TO INAUGURATE
SAFE DRIVING CAMPAIGN
Plans Discussed for Educating Student Body Against Any Possible Accidents

The College Senate Monday night discussed plans for a campaign to promote safe driving on the part of Trinity students, in response to an appeal from President Ogilby. It was decided to get in touch with Col.

P. G. O'CONNOR
Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and a former Trinity student, and ask his advice upon some suitable method of conducting the campaign.

It was pointed out that the automobile accidents among college students are especially numerous during the football season, when so many trips are made to and from games.
Objections were raised to any possible
attempt to restrict the use of cars
by undergraduates, as there are many ways in which rules of this sort would prove futile. Education of the student body in safe driving and a consciousness of the dangers involved were stressed as the best means of eliminating future accidents.
