WESLEYAN DEFEATS TRINITY SWIMMERS

Cardinals Take First Places in All Events Except Dashes

TANNER STARS

Captain Hall and Burke Outstanding as Blue and Gold Team

Last Saturday the Trinity swimming team journeyed to Middletown only to be overcome by a strong Wes­leyan outfit. Taking all but two events, the Cardinals placed first, the Blue and Gold was second, and the dashers were third. The Blue and Gold scoring machine, however, soon started functioning, as the second event, the 27-yard dash, was won easily by the outstand­ing performers for the other two positions with R. Martens and Sampers, respectively. Again in the 220-yard freestyle, We sleyan garnered the first two places to give them a substantial lead. This margin was increased to fifteen points in the 440-yard sail. The probable starting lineup will be the winning team on Thursday at Trinity.

Mr. Watters gave a brief talk in chapel last Wednesday on the life of Bach and the forces of circumstance that influenced his musical style. He said that the Bach family were all talented musicians, among whom were organists, violinists, and flute players. At stated intervals they would meet at the home of Johann Sebastian Bach’s instrument, the organ. In his youth, his very soul longed to bring out his musical fascinations by means of this king of instruments. As time passed on, he became a skilled organist.

Bach assimilated into his own compositions the different style modes of Italy and Germany, France, and England. His delightful dance suites were inspired by French music; his secular motets were performed by various composers’ works as a guide to his own work. He was so inspired by his original. He revolved against approved prescriptive methods. His knowledge of all types of music caused him to be the most individual musical thinker. Like the chemist, he combined elements of music to obtain com­plex sounds whose contemporaries had never heard of.

Mr. Watters told how he was playing selections from Bach, one after another. When he finished he produced that he was astonished to hear remarks made by Prentice.

TRINITY CORTMEN

FIVE TO SEEK VICTORY IN 2ND WESLEYAN GAME

Final Clash of Trinity Courtmen to Take Place on Thursday at Middletown

The basketball team will end its schedule at Middletown Thursday in return game with Wesleyan. Victory was previously in the first en­counter this season, defeating her arch rival by the score of 50-32.

The Blue and Gold has lost but three out of eleven games, owing to Amherst, a powerful Brown team, and again last week to Coast Guard Academy. The Wesleyan five seems to be a rather inconsistent aggregation. They have beaten and been beaten by Coast Guard. In the same week, they broke Amherst’s streak of eight wins and were overwhelmed by Williams. Roberts, Wesleyan center, was injured in the Williams’ encounter and may not be able to play against Trinity.

Despite the fine record of the Hill­toppers, the prevailing opinion, shared by the players themselves and those who have watched their games, seems to be that the team has not for any appreciable length of time in any game reached the heights of which it is capable. It is seen that it would be a fitting climax to the schedule as well as to the court careers of our Seniors if, in this one game, the quintet could click.

The probable starting lineup will be

Trinity Never Overcomes Lead Piled Up by Enemies in First Half

The Trinity hoopsters sustained their third loss of the season by the score of 32-24 at the hands of an alert Coast Guard Academy five on the final night of the season. Six Sampers once again was the first to tally, giving Trinity a slight lead which was lost and never regained. Trinity’s attack was carefully played in the first half, while their opponents played a careful, op­portunistic type of game, cashing in on a good percentage of their attacks to lead 13-9 at half time.

The play speeded up in the second period and Trinity started to pile on offense, with Martins and Sampers on the scoring end of manuvers. Coast Guard stubbornly refused to relinquish their advantage, however, and grimly held on until the pace began to tell on the Blue and Gold, and our men but two points behind, they broke through. We sleyan had shot its bolt, and Coast Guard, sensing it, put on the pressure. Light­ning-fast block plays left Waldron and our men but two points behind, they broke through. The "Tabby," however, did not keep to its original purpose, for in 1885, the essays preceded the news articles written in a general way and were more, or perhaps entirely, news of the present term. That's why I taste better. No top leaves, unripe and stinging; no bottom leaves, coarse and sandy, are permitted to destroy my uniform mildness and good taste. I'm your best friend. I am your Lucky Strike.

Against him. Two successful foul shots and a basket by the Trinity team reduced the Stem to Storrs to a single basket lead. With five minutes left to play, the score stood at 25-23 in the Statesmen's favor. Four successful foul shots, however, two by Captain Martens and one each by Ferrucci and Nelson, along with a basket by Sampers, pulled the game out of the fire for Trinity. Even though Connecticut State managed to sink one basket before the game ended, the Blue and Gold team walked off the floor, leading by a margin of one point. Captain Martens and Sampers tied for scoring honors on the home team, with 7 points each. The Trinity Jayvees, in the preliminary easily defeated the Connecticut State Freshmen 25-11. Except in the early minutes of the game, the Blue and Gold team's lead was never threatened. O'Bryon and Warner played well for the Jayvees.
