TRINITY YEARLINGS TO PLAY WESLEYAN FRIDAY

Untried Frosh Eleven to Tackle Experienced Cardinal Squad in Pre-Varsity Game

On Friday of this week Coach Bill Ovricht's untried but promising frosh team will journey to Wesleyan to play the frosh team, which is reported to be a strong outfit, having already beaten New Britain State Teachers' College.

Although Trinity's yearlings have played no actual games, they have had a number of practice sessions in the Preparatory School in which they have looked good. In thirty minutes of actual play against the Cardinals, they have shown in their possession twenty-five of the thirty minutes, scored one touchdown, while the Blue and Gold scored a touchdown in the remaining five minutes.

Coach Ovricht has decided upon his lineup, although those shown are hard pressed by an excellent group of substitutes. The backfield will be an excellent blocking back and safety man, with Wilson, who is expected on the defense as a vicious tackler; at the halfback posts will be Upham and Tattersall. BLUE AND GOLD BOOTERS BEATEN BY CONN. STATE

Trinity Runners Led By O'Bryon Useless as Statement Score Twice

The Trinity soccer team was forced to an unimpressive Connecticut State eleven Saturday by the score of 2 to 0 on the Trinity field. This was the first game the Blue and White won in five starts, while it also marks the first major defeat for the Hilltoppers. Playing twenty-minute quarter periods, the visitors managed to slip in a goal in both the second and the fourth periods while spirited rushes down the field led by Captain O'Bryon failed to net any score for the Blue and Gold.

The lineup:

Becke O.
Reece Schmid
Wells Hope
Dolts Davidson
Golding Wightman
Read Lander
Nothegel RR
Placentino

Goals scored by: Janis 1, Banks 1. Substitutions.—Trinity: Lindsay, H.; Hall; Connecticut State: Loclifer for Coco, Burton for Child, Johnson for Golder, Golder for Johnson, Child for Golder.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

Our hat goes off to Warner Bros. for one of the most remarkable movies of the year. It's a movie that proves that even on the small screen, Hal Mohr's photographs can create the work of a genius, and that for once the Korda's music has the sound, the rhythm, the music of the air, the music of the sea. It is a movie that defies belief that one might possibly offer is to the rest of the production.

The movie is a success not because the acting and directing are up to the same level as the music and sets, but because it has been able to capture the beauty of Shakespeare's text. This movie is one that should be seen by everyone, regardless of their preference for musicals or classics. The story is well told, the characters are developed, and the music is beautiful. It is a movie that should be seen in theaters or on your own TV screen. The end result is a production that is both entertaining and enlightening, one that will be remembered for years to come.

WESLEYAN PREVIEW.

O’Malley’s pass started successfully on nine forward passes, of which three were good for scores. After kicking off three first downs with surprising ease, Trinity, shortly following the opening kickoff, took to the airways with gratifying results. O’Malley received Kobrosky’s pass on State’s 15-yard stripe and raced the remainder of the distance through the Blue and White secondary for the initial tally. A few moments later, Kobrosky unleashed a tremendous heave to O’Malley who scored after a 10-yard jaunt. The ball traveled through the air a distance of well over fifty yards. The victorious eleven registered its third score of the game for the Hilltoppers. A fumble by O’Malley gave the Statemen their first opportunity to score at the start of the second quarter. Salvitza, right end, recovered the ball for Connecticut on Trinity’s 30-yard marker. Scarchuk, who had just been substituted, fumbled the ball on 15-yard stripe. On the following two plays, he carried the pigskin to the Blue and Gold’s three-yard line, and, after Captain Johnson was halted in his tracks, Scarchuk knelt through center for a touchdown. The Blue and White converted the extra point and led as the Statemen’s line plunged. As a result of a poor punt and a penalty, Trinity was obliged to kick off again. Kobrosky resulted in the third tally of the game for the Hilltoppers.
