TRINITY QUINTET ENDS
SEASON WITH VICTORY OVER CONN. STATE

Rapidly Shifting Lead Cause High Tension in Game Which Hits Climax in Near Fall

FERRUCCI STARS

Mountford, Kobrosky, and Ferrucci Garner High Marks In Last Game College

Thursday night, Trinity terminated its basketball season with a brilliant victory over a powerful Connecticut State quintet by a score of 40 to 33. This win was the eighth in twelve games and an important one, for it brought Mountford and then tapped in rapid order on shots by Ferrucci straight shots to no avail. Mountford sank a long shot as the half ended.

and Kobrosky. Trailing 22 to 13, the Hilltoppers, who scored four points without touching the rim. State handed shot, the gem of the evening, seconds before Mountford plunked a Janiga retaliated with a long one-scoring, but it was only a matter of minutes either team might have wreckage which graduation will cause, the team.

He kept the visitors from doing so by holding Flea Janiga to three field goals. His alert floor game unified points garnered by the Blue and Gold.

College basketball careers, by drubbing regulars: Captain Frank Ferrucci, Nelson, who wound up their

Mr. Waterman presented a talk by Mr. Greenley on the origin of Homo Sapiens in South Persia, Asserts Professor Huntington, of Yale

For instance, Origin of Homo Sapiens in South Persia, Asserts Professor Huntington, of Yale

The importance of climatic variation seventy are not as active or as

French, in the Eastern civilization,

Though the ideas followed by the quotation of the future

They should know something about the French, though the ideas followed by the quotation of the future

The Voice of Trinity, Mr. Lundin was

A hot discussion over the Supreme Court was started by Carl Lundin and Dudley Clapp in the Athenaeum meeting divises over court-packin­ing method. However, one thing must be remembered. There were seeing the culmination of years of hopes and hard work in that wild masterson of heads, cows, tewals, and suits that surged into the water in Joe Waterman's Pool.

LIEUTENANT CLAPP

Athenaeum Meeting Divides Over Court-Packin­g Method—Voting Proposal

A hot discussion over the Supreme Court was started by Carl Lundin and Dudley Clapp in the Athenaeum meeting divises over court-packin­g method. However, one thing must be remembered. There were seeing the culmination of years of hopes and hard work in that wild masterson of heads, cows, tewals, and suits that surged into the water in Joe Waterman's Pool.

Team Hits Stride

It was no fluke win, either. After floundering around more or less the whole year, the team finally hit a magnificent win stats which swept them through a powerful, scrappy crowd in the chapel on Wednesday evening.

DEPUTY SHERIFF CLARK

WILL AND Handles Trips to Be Illustrated by Natural Colored Movies

As a representative of the West and of Big Horn County, Wyoming, in particular, Robert Hewitt, or more widely known as Deputy Sheriff Bob, has come East to the land of sky-scrapers to assure himself that there is no truth in the statement that the Empire State Building is just as high as some of the hills in Big Horn County. Sheriff Hewitt is now visit­ing in Hartford and he is going to give a lecture in the Chemistry Lab­oratory of Trinity College at 3 p.m. on some of his trips and the West in general, which will be illus­trated with natural colored motion pictures which he took on his last trip.

Roosevelt's 40 to 33. The Blue and Gold gained a 14 to 11 lead, and then Mountford plunked a long shot, the gem of the evening, seconds before Mountford plunked a Janiga retaliated with a long one-scoring, but it was only a matter of minutes either team might have wreckage which graduation will cause, the team.

He kept the visitors from doing so by holding Flea Janiga to three field goals. His alert floor game unified points garnered by the Blue and Gold.

College basketball careers, by drubbing regulars: Captain Frank Ferrucci, Nelson, who wound up their

Mr. Waterman presented a talk by Mr. Greenley on the origin of Homo Sapiens in South Persia, Asserts Professor Huntington, of Yale

The importance of climatic variation seventy are not as active or as

French, in the Eastern civilization,

Though the ideas followed by the quotation of the future

The Voice of Trinity, Mr. Lundin was

A hot discussion over the Supreme Court was started by Carl Lundin and Dudley Clapp in the Athenaeum meeting divises over court-packin­g method. However, one thing must be remembered. There were seeing the culmination of years of hopes and hard work in that wild masterson of heads, cows, tewals, and suits that surged into the water in Joe Waterman's Pool.

Team Hits Stride

It was no fluke win, either. After floundering around more or less the whole year, the team finally hit a magnificent win stats which swept them through a powerful, scrappy crowd in the chapel on Wednesday evening.
THE CURTAIN

Hollywood is soon to suffer a talent famine due to its curious policy of seeking new stars and leading players. At the recent selection of newly-appointed assistant producer to David O. Selznick. Mr. M., as he is known, for, as head of a studio talent school in New York for three years, he is credited with a number of developments, including several screen personalities as Fred MacMurray, George Grantham, and Johnny Lamont. Louise Whitney, and John Howard.

"Hollywood today has need for more stars than ever before," declares Mr. Selznick, "and the demand will continue increasing. The need for talent will turn up in keeping with the demand, regardless of where schools, Mr. Selznick thinks, this condition be remedied. Such schools should select candidates on the basis of photographic possibilities and personal qualities and then test everyone of them in the presence of the assistants know where we are going, but often much better results are obtained from entering the stacks; thus we must select from the catalogue to stop the disturbance. We would, however, suggest that their restricted to the minority and shall endeavor to advance a few reasons why.

60,000 volumes were distributed. These were open at all times, and students in the reading room. Library now numbers over 129,000 volumes and 60,000 periodicals," says the latest edition of the catalogue. Very few men realize this fact though, being as they are, practically restricted to the volumes in the reading room. Library regulations prohibit anyone not connected with the library force from entering the stacks; thus we must select from the catalogue any book that we may want which is in the stacks and then wait until an assistant is free to get it. Often times students know little more about what goes on behind the scenes than we do.

We do not maintain that searching for a book in the catalogue is any great difficulty, but often much better results are obtained by just browsing through the books devoted to a particular subject.

But perhaps the average Trinity man cannot be trusted to where he can not be watched. We sincerely hope that this is not the case, but it seems that a small minority, at any rate, abuse their library privileges. It is appalling to note the number of books that are missing and that cannot be located. Some people have even gone so far as to cut articles out of magazines and other books.

A further shame and disgrace is the conduct of students in the reading room. At times it appears as though the room were a social center for students not in classes, and the assistants apparently are unable to cope with the situation. We do not blame them for the turn of affairs, as they do everything in their power to stop the disturbance. We would, however, suggest that their privileges be curtailed for a certain period of time until they are able to be expelled from the library and denied its privileges for a certain period of time, depending on the seriousness of the offense.

We recently had the opportunity to visit the library of a neighboring college where conditions appeared entirely different. A central reading room was surrounded by alcoves where its modest 60,000 volumes were distributed. These were open at all times, for the idea there was that half of the students and pleasures of the library came from just browsing around. About seventy-five people were in the reading room, but still the proverbial pin could be heard dropping. The student at the desk said that scarcely ever were any books missing or defaced. Truly, this student body was proud of its library, just as we ought to be about.

THE MODERN JACKSON

The modest Jackson hid his shriveling under a million-dollar, a smiling Mason on a Sunday. No doubt he had received a coming from the Fine Arts Department.

M. T. T. isn't the only one to have some trouble. J. Clarke was heard moaning that he had a Phil. 6 test the morning after a Wesleyan meal.

Job for Engineering Department design boardwalks that will stand up to the wear and tear of students.

We find that F. P. A. claims he quit the "Herald-Tribune" because he wanted more pay. You can't fool him; he was just sick of being bright on a typewriter six days a week. We wish we had his ability to give other people fill his column for him. To note reading of writings (if accessible) are welcome.

Trinity teams have won more than half their games this year. To remove the suspicions of cynics, we suppose that their strength comes from the two stars that these two teams have, namely George Rountree, "Hank.""When You're In Love" is one of the best films to come out of Hollywood, den of iniquity, in this, the merry year, 1937. Don't miss it.

ONE WEEK, MARCH 9, 1937

Editor-in-Chief
D. HOYT ABERDEEN, JR., '39

Managing Editor
CLEMENT S. KOTKIN, '38

Assignment Editor
WILLIAM H. GORMAN, II, '39

Reportorial Staff
JESSIE CRUMWELL, '39
John B. Reinhelter, '39

Business Staff
W. F. CAMPBELL, '39
JOSEPH C. BUTH, '39
George F. Wilson, '40
Herbert Blant, '40

IN THE LIBRARY

Many people have said that Trinity College library facilities are the best possible for a small college. We often wonder, however, how many students can and are able to take full advantage of these facilities. We are of the opinion that it is only a small minority and shall endeavor to advance a few reasons why.

"The library now numbers over 129,000 volumes and 60,000 periodicals," says the latest edition of the catalogue. Very few men realize this fact though, being as they are, practically restricted to the volumes in the reading room. Library regulations prohibit anyone not connected with the library force from entering the stacks; thus we must select from the catalogue any book that we may want which is in the stacks and then wait until an assistant is free to get it. Often times students know little more about what goes on behind the scenes than we do. We do not maintain that searching for a book in the catalogue is any great difficulty, but often much better results are obtained by just browsing through the books devoted to a particular subject.

But perhaps the average Trinity man cannot be trusted to where he can not be watched. We sincerely hope that this is not the case, but it seems that a small minority, at any rate, abuse their library privileges. It is appalling to note the number of books that are missing and that cannot be located. Some people have even gone so far as to cut articles out of magazines and other books.

A further shame and disgrace is the conduct of students in the reading room. At times it appears as though the room were a social center for students not in classes, and the assistants apparently are unable to cope with the situation. We do not blame them for the turn of affairs, as they do everything in their power to stop the disturbance. We would, however, suggest that their privileges be curtailed for a certain period of time until they are able to be expelled from the library and denied its privileges for a certain period of time, depending on the seriousness of the offense.

We recently had the opportunity to visit the library of a neighboring college where conditions appeared entirely different. A central reading room was surrounded by alcoves where its modest 60,000 volumes were distributed. These were open at all times, for the idea there was that half of the students and pleasures of the library came from just browsing around. About seventy-five people were in the reading room, but still the proverbial pin could be heard dropping. The student at the desk said that scarcely ever were any books missing or defaced. Truly, this student body was proud of its library, just as we ought to be about. One only has to think of the other fellow.

Here and There

The modest Jackson hid his shriveling under a million-dollar, a smiling Mason on a Sunday. No doubt he had received a coming from the Fine Arts Department.

M. T. T. isn't the only one to have some trouble. J. Clarke was heard moaning that he had a Phil. 6 test the morning after a Wesleyan meal.

Job for Engineering Department design boardwalks that will stand up to the wear and tear of students.

We find that F. P. A. claims he quit the "Herald-Tribune" because he wanted more pay. You can't fool him; he was just sick of being bright on a typewriter six days a week. We wish we had his ability to give other people fill his column for him. To note reading of writings (if accessible) are welcome.

Trinity teams have won more than half their games this year. To remove the suspicions of cynics, we suppose that their strength comes from the two stars that these two teams have, namely George Rountree, "Hank.""When You're In Love" is one of the best films to come out of Hollywood, den of iniquity, in this, the merry year, 1937. Don't miss it.

HEWITT TO SPEAK

Hewitt is the only man to reach the Hollywood peak without backing and takes a camera to collect material for his lectures. Last year he went on approximately fifteen hundred miles with three boys and a pack and travelled through the mountains. He and his companions were gone for several months and returned to our fire journey.

The late Mr. Hewitt's appreciative admirers, Bob Howard, is the subject of a forthcoming journey which he thinks will be by air and will take him to the best films to come out of Hollywood. His declaration is, however, not quite so definite as that of Miss Moore, who says she will come to the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. She is also said to be interested in the making of "The Three Misses," a musical comedy over on the pseudo-cinema.

You're in love with him. Holly and Mooney married in order to chastise her, for Francine Larrimore's return to the screen. Miss Moore, of course, sings in her favorite musical comedy over on the pseudo-cinema.

There is a rumor of several slanders suits in the offing.

The publicity department of the Jesters is having temperature trouble. One of the actors refused to be photographed for the proper date, oh, well, the extra work for the boys probably did them some good.

Found a sign on a country road which advertised eggs without specifying whether they were fresh or not.

At the Junior class elections there were some dissenting voters, but probably none will be present. Probably in the future there will be more voters or less.

The Althamirus is mulling over plans for a meeting which will air a little general interest for a change.

Zuppeirap, Crow House Guard, says he is thinking of taking his latest invention to someone this week. He is also said to be interested in the making of "The Three Misses," a musical comedy over on the pseudo-cinema.

Here I sit, broken-hearted, Paid a nickel and the...
"That is a good book which is opened with expectation and closed with profit."
—A. Bronson Alcott, from Table Talk.

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

THE JESTERS
of Trinity College

WEDNESDAY CHAPEL
(Continued from page 1)

The speaker next took the radio industry as an example of the average person's tendency to doubt the plausibility of a new idea, until shown differently, citing a personal experience of several years ago in which he decided the predictions of a friend, now an official in the Radio Corporation of America, concerning the success and future widespread use of the contraption in which he was interested. It seemed to have been the custom through the years up to the present day to laugh at anything the success of which seems doubtful.

After speaking about this tendency to doubt the voice of God, the real voice of experience, Dr. Neill pointed out the advantages of speaking or writing in the words of the audience to which the work is addressed. He gave an example of the man sent out as a missionary to a heathen land, who, although upon his arrival, could not speak a word in the native tongue, finally managed to learn the language and consequentially was able to preach the gospel.

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College

The Bryant & Chapman Company
The Leading Milk Dealers
of Trinity College
Men Greatly Perplexed

Our President, Jackson; time, 20-minute halves.

The summary:

- Dover (T); second, Ploof (W); third, Crowley (T); time, 3:19.8.
- Timm (T); second, Lehninger (W); third, Dittman (T); time, 3:22.8.
- Total, 27; 33 points.

The beating which the men administered to Worcester Poly was by the large score exceeded over the record by this year's only two points more than a perfect score. And Joe tried to let them score more.

They tell us that sitting next to Joe next season, will make Forrester and Mountford flicked in an entertaining B.F. Keith's best effort. And so the statistics show, the boys in the two Trinity aces, Aksomitas and Davis, were handily defeated the Blue and Gold Jarveys.

- Total, 18; 40 points.
- Connecticut State, B. F. P.
- Kooirolla, 0; 1 point.
- Bloom, 3; 4 points.
- Ploof, 0; 0 point.
- Loeffer, 1; 3 points.
- Himovitch, 0; 0 point.
- Cowley, 0; 2 points.
- Janiga, 2; 2 points.

The track team is in the best heat so far as material is concerned, but rumor hath it that the competition will be a simple matter and suffer diatanner than ever before.

Jim Kenney put in one of the best games of his career when he handled the situation very nicely so far as Janiga was concerned. In short, he put the ball on the line, or if you have to make the lay, he put the straight ball.

As a matter of the winning type caused an awful lot of trouble for Pringle at said game, who was both in one of his lowest scores all season. Something which the box score doesn't show, but which has been turned in all season by the men who are now playing, is that it is more than their own teammates. Our congratulations and felicitations to Joe Clarke.

Poor Wesleyan has only victories in basketball and cross country to console itself with so far this college year, for its better fortunes are down on their knees every night now.

Joe Clarke is all but up about the fact that he has the largest number of lettermen that he's ever had, and of the twelve, ten will be among us next year.

(Continued from page 1.)

Bob Zupke of the Illini eliminated the two Trinity aces, Aksomitas and Davis, and really a top-notch swimmer.

Our President, Jackson; time, 20-minute halves.

The summary:

- Dover (T); second, Ploof (W); third, Crowley (T); time, 3:19.8.
- Timm (T); second, Lehninger (W); third, Dittman (T); time, 3:22.8.
- Total, 27; 33 points.

The beating which the men administered to Worcester Poly was by the large score exceeded over the record by this year's only two points more than a perfect score. And Joe tried to let them score more.

They tell us that sitting next to Joe next season, will make Forrester and Mountford flicked in an entertaining B.F. Keith's best effort. And so the statistics show, the boys in the two Trinity aces, Aksomitas and Davis, were handily defeated the Blue and Gold Jarveys.
An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Jepson verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
OFFICE NEWS
(Continued from page 5.)

Bishop Roberts for his work among the Indians in South Dakota.

Last week newspapers reported from South Dakota that the mission church of the Reverend Paul H. Barbour, '98, father of F. H. Barbour, Jr., of the Senior Class was destroyed by fire. This would seem to indicate that an offering sent to Bishop Roberts at this time would be indeed welcome.

In a recent class election at Illinois the boys and gals went big time by using a voting machine to count ballots.

Pardon our naivete, but we at Trinity are still in the horse and buggy class, and we hardly think that a voting machine would go well with the local "rotten borough" system.

Waldman's Pen Shop
218 Asylum Street, Hartford
Just below the Allyn Theatre

On March 7 President Ogilby preached at Choate School, Wallingford, and on March 14 he is preaching at the Walker School, Simsbury, and Loomis School, Windsor.

Miss Mary G. Barron, Supervising Teacher of the American School for the Deaf, West Hartford, was the guest lecturer at the Saturday morning meeting of the Latin X class. She brought with her two of her pupils.

Miss Barron explained and illustrated methods of language teaching at the institution. Her two pupils followed with monologues in the sign language, one on the coming coronation and the other on Abraham Lincoln. The program was enthusiastically received.

Professor Perkins, of the Physics Department, is president of the Board of Trustees of the West Hartford institution.

Note: Eighty-nine inches to go.

Note: The above inch is dedicated to Dean Hood.

Inspired by P. G. Wodehouse, students at Nazareth College have a Goon Club whose slogan reads: "A pun a day keeps your enemies away" (also a damn good way to keep your friends at a distance).

An enterprising student at Mass. State has secured his education by working as a bell-hop, a truck driver, butcher, farmhand, and post office helper.

What? No brown-nosing?

Good Shoes
At Medium Prices
The Packard
Boot Shop

Waldman's Pen Shop
Fountain Pens, Pencils, Desk Sets, Leads, Inks, Repairs.
Exclusively a Pen Shop.

Copyright 1937, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.