TRINITY HOST TO ANNUAL MEETING OF N. E. M. I. A.

The idea of a meeting of all the language groups, which Dr. Coleside drew the specifications for the organ, has been forced to write a great part of the music; Mr. J. H. Kuykendall, of the Church of the Holy Trinity; Mr. E. M. H. H. N. F., of the Trinity College Chapel, and Mr. J. E. C. M. C., of the University Chapel, have been involved in the work. In the service they will be sung will be sung by the school choir of the Trinity College Chapel. There is a good deal of debate now over the morality or worth of Compulsory Chapel. The question is not who believes in the religious tenets of any person a member of a church. It is against my college rules, has given the campus a new look, and the students, administrative powers, and others for the first time have a sense of being on a campus.

The Campus of Spring

With the advent of spring the campus becomes luxuriant in green, as the lilacs, forsythias, and wispy grasses are blooming. The campus is evident, and the students, administrative powers, and others for the first time have a sense of being on a campus.

The half-mile was Tommy Mc-Laughlin all the way, putting on tape by his ever-striving teammate, Ivan Bennett. Beaten this year by only one-fourth mile when he started from a sick bed, changed his usual tactics and made it his own race.
After the Mile, McLaughlin ran the 880 yards of Conkling, R. P. I., into second place and a bit slower than his usual time.

The half-mile was one of the highlights of the meet and a great triumph for Herb Pankrats, who paced himself for the first 200 yards and then cut loose in a withering stretch drive to overtake Fastolfi of R. P. I. in the remaining fifty yards. At the gun Pankrats was content to take the pole in third place, holding back around the turn at a coasting pace.

WEDNESDAY CHAPEL

By C. S. C. III

Saturday Trinity track fans saw a remarkable performance turned in by the stalwart young men who wear the blue and gold jersey of Trinity. In the course of the afternoon these college records were rung up. Besides this the team defeated R. P. I. which has hitherto been undefeated in dual meets.

The stands had hardly become filled when Bill McLaughlin dashed to a new college record, when he negated the distance in ten seconds flat. There is plenty of evidence that Bill might be able to break ten seconds, if he were running on a fast track. One of the clocks set on him had him timed in slightly under ten seconds.

The next record to fall before the onslaught of the Trinity record breakers was the half-mile time. Tom McLaughlin dashed to a new record of 2:08:8 to beat his own record. Tom won going away. If pressed he could possibly have run faster. For the first time this year Tom was in form. He has been suffering from a slight attack of tonsilitis most of the season, and this is the first race he has run feeling at his best.

Herb Pankrats, who has been threatening the 440-meter all season, finally came through with a record-breaking performance. He negated the distance in 50.9 to break a record set in 1897. It won’t be long before Herb is breaking fifty seconds. There will be many sadly disappointed people, if he doesn’t come through with it next year.

He could say it because he had good will toward all. Good will is the greatest thing in the world, now and ever.

R. P. I. TRACK MEET

Laughton was fading, but at the far turn he loosened up and Bennett flew up the pay-off lane at his heels with Connelly pushing in for show money.

With Carlson favored in the low hurdles by virtue of his smashing win in the 110-yard timbers, Kiley, soph­ omore hurdler and former freshman sprinter, upset the dope and broke the tape to win handily in the mediocre time of 27 seconds flat.

Captain Faccia of Trinity turned in a noteworthy performance as he captured a first, second, and third. He scored the pole-vaunt honors at twelve feet, missing the record by an inch and a fraction. Four other points were added with a second in the high jump and third in the broad which was virtu of trinity best to hoover, Tech­ man, by three-quarters of an inch.

The final dash—the 220—was a lightning victory for the fleet-footed Ryan who galloped around the turn and turned on a blazing finish in the last few yards to win in 23.1, 1:16 sec­ ond and off the standard for the distance around a turn. Herb Pankrats re­ turned to the clinders to push in ahead of Curtis of R. P. I., taking a valu­ able three points for Trinity.

The two-mile run was a clean vic­ tory for the visitors when Locski showed a steady pace the entire dis­ tance and won comfortably in 16:37.

The other two field events proved ungrateful. Both the high jump and shot put fell to the visitors.

The Trinity track fans saw a number of events in which the visitors proved ungrateful. Both the high jump and shot put fell to the visitors.

John Alexander placed second, but Mauden, of R. P. I., outstanding per­ former for the Tecmen, took a third. In the javelin he gancerced second as his teammate Browne won the high jump with the low leap of 5 feet 7 inches.
