TRIN-WES GAME LOOMS

Cards Furnish Last Hurdle To First Undefeated Season Since 1934

BIG CROWDS EXPECTED

Monster Rally and Gala Radio Broadcast in Auditorium to Welcome Dennehy

The die is cast. With a few big streets on which to conduct a tremendous pre-Westyan rally, a great dance orchestra and a score of cute corners, an undefeated football team, and—through it all—seven fraternity houses to keep the spirit high, this coming weekend promises to be rather something, to say the least.

We venture, if we may, to divide the weekends to come, each of which there is to be the biggest rally in history. There was a time when our forefathers here got into the spirit of a rally so heartily that the Connecticut Trust Company regularly lost two trolley cars at each affair, which, is hardly good business. Lately, however, the C. T. C. has been disbanding transportation service left and right and in horrible anticipation of Friday's rally, which this campus at 6:30 goes down Vernon Street to Washington Rally over the spacious floor. Highballs by candlelight, noisy tots-

Thirdly, there is the football game, for which number one, the rally, was held. Trinity has crept through six games thus far without a loss, fre-

Monsieur Jef Denyn

The Guild of Carillonneurs, com-

States and Canada who play bells, has been honoring in the past four weeks Monsieur Jef Denyn, who died recently in Belgium at an advanced age. For years he had been director of a school for Carillonneurs at Ma-their training. On every euition in this country there has been played a recital in memory of M. Denyn. Last

House-Parties

Lastly, concluding our succinct analysis, are the house-parties which are a part of the fall social and athletic season here. They will also wind up a weekend which is too full of events to allow for any breach of accumulation.

A powerful Amherst outfit pushed unmercifully down a sloppy field six times last Friday against a weakened

Trinity Freshman eleven to roll up a 41 to 0 victory in a complete annihilation.

Trinity got off to a good start and in the first quarter drove down to the Amherst 15-yard stripe, but lost the ball on downs and never again neared the Amherst goal. Bad breaks on fumbles combined with poor punting

Thursday, November 6 — War whoops, eagle feather head-dresses, belled mocassins, drums and brilliant Indian blankets changed the Trinity Auditorium tonight into a replica of the West for some three hundred spectators who were present at a program presented by four Western Woods Indians who were guests of the College today.

The four braves, Rainbow, who and Danielson, the latter missing a heartbreaker. Through the game the highly superior short passing of the Lord Jeffs was glaringly evident as Trinity’s offensive repeatedly died out. As the half ended the Blue and Gold was still plugging, but the Amherst goal-line remained unconquered.

Amherst opened the second half in a burst of power that gave them their fourth goal. Again Trinity rallied out an alert Amherst goalie staved off each threat. The outstanding defensive plays of the Trinity fullbacks, Grimes and Dryden, prevented more scoring by Amherst. The halfback of Dexter, Brown, and Dexter played as brilliantly as usual.

We’re out to avenge that defeat from Open Date. Look out, Wes!...
