President Ogilby and the Connecticut Chapter of the Modern Language Association of the United States will be host to a meeting of the New England Modern Language Association on Thursday, April 11. Professor Naylor will be present at the service and will make the selection of hymns. The New England Modern Language Association's most vital industry, steel. Christians.''

"When we return to God after having been compared with the grandeur of God, but we cannot stop at that point—a heaven that is not actual—no heavenly country."

"It may think that salvation and the kingdom of God are just one step ahead of the industrious man, but until we acknowledge that we are under the judgment of God will we receive his power."
The Trinity Triad

San Francisco Roman poet prize was awarded. The first and second awards of the Alumni Department, which are voluntary, with the topic, "The Eclipse of the 19th Century French Drama," received a return to decency on the part of the men now running our organizations and an awakened interest on the part of the rest of us.

INTEREST IN PRIZES LAX

Along with a general lack of interest in extra-curricular organism activities, there has been a decrease in the number of people competing for various prizes offered for compositions by undergraduates. For example, the Ferguson Prizes in History and Political Science, amounting to $75 and $50. Two years ago no one submitted any theses at all, last year all advanced economics students were required to compose theses as a part of their regular course, and this year the competition is again voluntary, with the topic, "The Taxation of Excess Profits in War Time." Some students have written books pedantically to the thesis, but it has been taken out of the library.

In connection with this situation and in answer to our editorial of last week, the following letter is printed in another column on this page. While we do not completely agree with all this writer says, we were impressed by his voluminous communication because it represents a point of view and offers some suggestions. We hope that this first letter will stimulate more of our readers to follow suit in expression of opinion on this subject so important to the welfare of Trinity College.

The Great Profile" Flattened As Barrymore Misses Boat In Attempt at Self-Portrayal FLUBS "PLAYMATES"

Brief Tour of Hartford's Cinema Findings Fail to Reveal Anything Outstanding

"Four words upon the Palace gate Are worth a thousand of the rest..." Even if your plans for the approaching weekend are As Yet Undetermined, you may go in the direction of Loew's Pool Palace. Remissions from the eternal situation there isn’t so hot, and indeed, won’t be until their current release of "St. Vitus Fashion" goes into the New England Circuit. For "Playmates" has neither plot, action, nor character, and Allyn and John Barrymore just sit there and grin. There, then, is the choice of the film critics. The journalism is this senate that represents us—what do they do?

Review this week this visit the week ever effervescent Rooney will be on display once more in another turbulent saga of the Hardy family, or to be more specific, "Mastah Andy." In keeping with the spirit of the New England Circuit. For "Playmates" has neither plot, action, nor character, and Allyn and John Barrymore just sit there and grin. BUt, on the other hand, there’s a free photograph of General MacArthur for all patrons under 21. Tommy Ashton received a more or less haphazard assignment from the Hartford Courant to attend the opening of the Little Theatre. With B. W. Copeland shall answer for this! The Regal’s "Playmates" is a misfire just as any flappers in the industry whose sons are so mentioned to represent themselves are misfired. Indeed, Barrymore portrays a mop-eaten, penurious version of himself, who is prevailed upon by his lover (the remarkable structure of the mortgage to the old farm by tutor...Bye Lord Kay Kyser and Ginny Sugar, one pound 30 centimes is evidently an old song. It has neither plot, action, nor character, and Allyn and John Barrymore just sit there and grin. There, then, is the choice of the film critics. Power Biggs and Arthur Fieldler (with his orchestra) appears, are all labelled. The magic is evidently an old song. It has neither plot, action, nor character, and Allyn and John Barrymore just sit there and grin. There, then, is the choice of the film critics. The "Kings Row" at the Strand and "The Fleet's In" at the Allyn,” this week will find only two new arrivals of any importance, and that is a matter for concern on the part of the prospective members. "Mastah Andy," produced by Victor with a Hardy" with Donna Reed being the object of Andy’s affections. Lucky girl! The operation works of his contemporary, that musical colossus, the aspiring Romeo’s gullet—and Dr. M. Montgomery stands there and grins. But then, for those from whom music with red corpuscles receives no recognizable deputy under the laws of physics, the performance of "Kings Row," its recording is impeccable, and, with Gene Krupa at the drums, etc., this press sheet should send many a vote derelict into a syncope of utter rapture.

Record Department: The Classics: Truly enchanting is Victor’s latest organ concertos recording. This particular work was composed by William Felton, an eighteen century chymist, and, in form resembles somewhat the Law of Nature to which the majority of sinners adhere.

Dr. Buell Announces Summer School Courses
Twenty-one Departments Offer Wide Variety of Studies to Summer Students

Dr. C. E. Watters entices the musical minds with a musical appreciation course.

Dr. Means and Mann Weigert, newly added members of the faculty, offer "Philosophy of the State" and "Modern Philosophy," by R. W. Wead, while Dr. Weigert, with his "Geopolitics," gives promise of making a real contribution to the student of current events.

The Physics department is under­mined as to who shall instruct the second of the following courses, A. P. R. Wadland teaching the first: "Elementary Physics," "Elementary Radio Engineering," and "Communications Engineering."

"Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence," and "Educational Psychology," taught by Dr. Altmaier, and "Advanced General Psychology," under B. W. Hutt, comprise courses offered by the Psychology department. Dr. Buell is teaching the Sociology courses and "Comparative Sociology."

"Elementary Spanish," under Dr. R. W. Scott, completes the list of summer school courses. For further more detailed information, students are advised to get in touch with Dr. Irwin A. Buell who has summer school catalogues, now ready for distribution.

PAUL ELECTIONS

On Wednesday, April 8, the Beta Beta Chapter of Phi Upsilon Theta fraternity held elections for officers for the coming 1942-1943 term. The officers elected were: Stanley D. Woodworth, Marleboom, Mas., president; Paul A. BTN, vice-president; Eric Pierce, Milton, Mass., second vice-president; Lock­wood R. Dolby, Lockport, N. Y., treasurer; and J. D. Neil Peirce, St. Louis, secretary.

AVON STUDENTS TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE

On Sunday afternoon, April 26, the faculty of Avon Old Farm School will visit Trinity College, sharing the vesper service which will be dedicated to Trinity men in uniform. They will be entertained afterwards in the Dining Hall, and will be given a chance to inspect the college.

College students smoke “because everyone else does,” a survey at Bowling Green (Ohio) State University reveals. However, an almost equally large number reported that they “really enjoy smoking.”

Briefly, the Iowa plan provides that each student buy a 15-cent Defense Savings Stamp each week.

Emotional Fatigue Affects Radio Public
New Mental Disease Studied by American Sociological Society

If it develops as a mass affliction of American listeners, the radio fatigue will be an excessive listening to emotion machines and a result of the greeting of misguided propagandists who stir up "emotional emotions," which cannot be controlled but does disturb digestions and impair mental and physical efficiency.

"The recent extraordinary bombing of Hawaii probably released enough energy to make people feel as if they were dedicated to thirties in uniform. They will be entertained afterwards in the Dining Hall, and will be given a chance to inspect the college.
