President and Dean

Start Radio Series

The Trinity radio programs, which were discontinued last year, have now been revived under the direction of Bernice Mullins and the Student Council. The programs, which are in charge of operations: the student and faculty committees, are under the direction of Charles Robinson, Jim Kinross, Robert Boyle, Orley Greve, Robert Obrier, Ned Williams, Edward Obst, and George Shaw. The radio committee is in charge of the programs, which are heard every Wednesday night from 8:30 to 8:30 o'clock. The regular committee, which is in charge of the college programs every Friday night from 6:30 to 8:00 WORBC, is made up of Mr. Mason, Dean Holland, and Professors Shaw, Allen, and Williams. As yet only two programs have been broadcast, one by the faculty, which were held on November 6 and 8, respectively. On the first night, the contributors were Dean Hughes, Bob Toland, and John Tyler. The Dean, in his speech, stressed the need for extra-curricular activities, and he told how Trinity was promoting these. Bob Toland spoke on the Senate, its aims and its members, while Tyler's talk was on the general purposes of the programs. The faculty sponsored program was inaugurated by President Fauson, who introduced Mr. Mason, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad and prominent alumnus of the college. Mr. Clements spoke on the importance of a liberal education what one should do in order to gain one's living, and gave a broad-brushing and outlook and a true sense of proportion. He also stated that this should be a high scoring game. Perhaps the students, who have taken some interest in football, will find that this should be a high scoring game.

Northrop Bids U. S. Lead World Powers

"We need the ideas that this speaker is going to lay before us," said President Northrop which is introduced as F. C. Northrop on November 7. Professor Northrop is a war-time consultant, a humanist and philosopher of Silliman College, New Haven, and is also the author of the recent best-seller, "The Meeting of East and West."

"The subject of his lecture was "The Foreign Policy of the United States."

Professor Northrop began by saying that, "These are times when, if one has any knowledge, he should fight for what he knows. It is our duty to go on to say that now foreign policy is international and not national. He stated that there is one obvious fact concerning our foreign policy in which we are confronted with a conflict of ideologies. On the one side there is the Communist ideology, and on the other there is our own, which are so opposed that the countries can not compromise with each other."

The Yale professor said that there is a tremendous conflict of ideas between Latin-American and others. He also said that, "The South American is entirely different; it is freedom of the press."

There is also a conflict between the English and ourselves, the professor declared. Our government is based on the belief of individualism. We are the only nation in the world that still cling to individualism. We, the professor Northrop declared. Therefore, they are bringing about a Republican regime, cannot last because it is based on this obsolete pro-Kantian philosophy."

"The really crucial conflict, however, is between the Eastern and the Western."

Dr. Northrop said. The Orientals comprise two-thirds of the world population, and they are more peaceful in character but distinctly different. They do not have the same conflict in forming our foreign policy, yet we haven't even dreamed of such policy. We don't even know the problem exists.

Professor Northrop concluded by saying that if we do recognize, understand, and reconcile the ideological conflict in the world today, there can be no peace, and that, "if we don't lead the world, there won't be peace."}

LADY EARNINGS DATA OR NO CASH

Mr. Candelor, Veteran and Curver Counselor, said late last night that it is required of all business that they file immediately, An Estimate of Earnings, a form on a cash problem. This includes any kind of compensation whatever, in the form of wages, salaries, commissions, bonuses, payments, etc., that a veteran has received as a result of his employment, whether it be self-employment, or employment from any other person. This applies to extension students as well as regular college and graduate students.

These forms can be obtained in Mr. Candelor's office, which is located opposite the Admissions Office, and the Office of Student Financial Aid.

PREMED AND SCIENCE ENTHUSIASM REACHES PEAK AS NEW CLUB MEETS

The Pre-Medical and Science Club, which was organized on November 19, has begun to meet in the evening, and its first meeting will be held on November 30. It is now in the history of Trinity, and the present president of the organization, commented, "A club such as this has been needed for a long time."

About October 16, a group of students interested in the Pre-Medical and Science Club was born. It was given a permanent home in the second floor of the faculty, for the faculty had not a single finger in the pie. In addition to those who are members, it is hoped that many others who are interested will be added to the list of those who wish to attend, and for the first general meeting will be posted on the Jarvis bulletin board. Between those various activities, students of scientific interests will be discussed as the club meets.

Large Crowd Expected To See Top-State Game

One of football's oldest rivalries will be renewed after a lapse of three years when the illustrious Wesleyan at Middletown Saturday. A capacity crowd is expected to witness the game. The 10-5-1 record the Blue and Gold have in the past two years, is made up as follows: a loss, one victory, and ten ties. Perhaps the most stunning defeat of the recent years was in 1941. Wesleyan had gone through six games without a defeat, handing Coast Guard its only loss of the year on an extra point after time had run out. Joe Beidler was quarterback on one of the finest elevens ever to wear Trinity colors. Wesleyan had suffered a defeat in only two games, but true to the script of traditional rivalries, the Blue and Gold came out on top. The Hiltop the Blue and Gold have re-covered a Little Three Champions, in its season that included their season without a loss.

Wesleyan will rule a heavy favorite to add to its commanding lead in the series. In the last eleven games since the Blue and Gold met, Wesleyan, the Blue and Gold have not scored a single point. The Blue and Gold have won seven of the Blue and Gold have tied four.

That this should be a high scoring affair is indicated by Dan Jesse's football - an event that in order to win his charges will have to pile up four or five touchdowns. The Wesleyan attack has produced 144 points this season, featuring a strong ground game. Besides, the Blue and Gold have yet to meet a defense that can stop them. Their ability to take to the air against a good defense is one of the Blue and Gold's greatest assets.

Wesleyan will rely on the strong right arm of Tony Kunkel, one of the finest passers in small college football. The Blue and Gold have scored 56 points this season. The Blue and Gold have completed four of five in the third period, and have scored 699 yards.

The Blue and Gold will par physically, as it has been many times in the past. Bob Roland was lost early in the season, and Fred Goldsman received a kick in the head, aggravating an old injury. Frank Eben is still nursing a bad ankle and Bob Buster has a bad back. But they are not a few of the most important ailments. But this is the Blue and Gold's greatest asset.

The Blue and Gold will be able to go all out in its attempt to renewed near Wesleyan's perfect record.

The probable starting lineup will be:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Position</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>School</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Quarterback</td>
<td>Daniel Jesse</td>
<td>Wesleyan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Linebacker</td>
<td>Joe Beidler</td>
<td>Wesleyan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wide Receiver</td>
<td>Mike Johnson</td>
<td>Wesleyan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Offensive Tackle</td>
<td>George Jones</td>
<td>Wesleyan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Defensive Back</td>
<td>Tony Kunkel</td>
<td>Wesleyan</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

"Male Animal." The war slowed down the society's regular offering of a" Bolshevik." In its stead, the Trinitarians are allowed to present a "Male Animal," the first play since 1944, when they gave "The Boy Who Cried Wolf." The play was produced by the society's "Bolshevik." In its stead, the Trinitarians are allowed to present a "Male Animal," the first play since 1944, after the presentation, and hope that every Trinity man will see the show, "Male Animal," for the first play of the new season.

Soph Hop Brings Big Weekend Revival

250 Couples Attend Ferneando Dance

The Soph Hop held last Friday evening at the Club Card opened from immediate signs a great success as judged by the approximately 250 couples in attendance at the initial social event of the current college year.

Swaying through the evening "smooth" dancing to the music of former serviceman Johnny Neece's Orchestra and entertained with great success by the Pipes in the form of a newly composed second verse to the popular Trinity smoker version of the ballad "George Jones," was witnessed a full edition in the regular stock-type flow show, the dancers continued until the 1 1:00 a.m. curfew put an end to the demonstration.

Among the happy group were President and Mrs. Fauson, Dean Hughes, Bob Toland, and Mr. Custer, Chairman of the Dance Committee, expressed his thanks to the members of the committee for whom he was headed for their fine job of making the dance the success it was. And to the several members of the faculty who served as patrons and patrons.

They should be completed promptly and returned in order that they may be forwarded to the Veterans Administration. If there is any veteran who is not sure whether he has filled out and returned his form, when Averell Harriman, in his speech, the probable judgment of compensation whatever, in the form of wages, salaries, comissions, bonuses, payments, etc., that a veteran has received as a result of his employment, whether it be self-employment, or employment from any other person. This applies to extension students as well as regular college and graduate students.

These forms can be obtained in Mr. Candelor's office, which is located opposite the Admissions Office, and the Office of Student Financial Aid.

JESTERS TO OPEN AT AVERY IN DECEMBER

When the house lights of the Avery Memorial dim on the night of December 6, and the curtain rises, the Trinity Jesters give. The first presentation of Truitey Odor, "Golden Boy," will be the 3rd and dramatic production of the dramatic society since its re-organization in 1929. The Jesters is one of the best known examples of campus activity, and, as the only dramatic society of the college, represents a Trinity tradition. With the members of the Jesters fall into two classes. The first, a Junior Jester, is one who has taken some part in the activities of the society. When a Junior Jester has accumulated ten hours of participation in the acting, producing or business divisions of the dramatic production, he becomes a Senior Jester. In its earlier days, the Jesters sent Richard Bartholomew on his way to Broadway and Hollywood. One of its former members, Bill Nelson, served as the Photographic Editor of "Look."

"Boy Meets Girl," produced in May of 1946, was the last play by the Jesters before their coming production of "Golden Boy," and it was the first play since 1944, when they gave "The Boy Who Cried Wolf." The play was produced by the society's "Bolshevik." In its stead, the Trinitarians are allowed to present a "Male Animal," the first play since 1944, after the presentation, and hope that every Trinity man will see the show, "Male Animal," for the first play of the new season.
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1946

THE WOLF
By Leonard Sansone

"Why, no! I'm not expecting any flowers."

Inquiring Reporter

Title: What Were You Doing at 11 'Click Last Saturday Night?"

Fred Missel—"I was at the fall concert of the Christian Interformations of the Consecrated Valley area school.

Don Wigglesworth—"Undoubtedly I was standing at the Delta Phi bar
buying my daily drink."

Norm Turner—"I was trying to keep people from turning on a light in a very strong storm."

Jack Parker—"I'm looking like hell at the Botany girl's party."

Ed Notes—"You made me an unen­ventful night. I was in bed."

Harry Bracken—"I was trying to convince people that I was sober."

Dine Philips—"I was trying to convince Bracken that he wasn't sober."

Saw Serendipity—"Dancing with a silly name at the Common Club dance."

Lang Warren—"I was watching the Springfield-New Haven hockey game. While they were making the only two good points in the game was seeing a man about 12 tall."

 Ned Williams—"I was probably looking for another glass."

Dick Apple—"I was making the rounds of the first parties and deciding which one to go to, compared to the one at Sigma Nu.

Bill Roland—"I was on the roof on weekend."

Ed Albee—"I was arguing. No further thoughts."

Ezra Daron—"Visiting West Hartford friends."

Front Row Center

With George Desert

This is hardly the first occasion on which press-time has prevented us from including an important review. There is, however, one of the most unforgotten in the columns of the Christian Interformations of the Consecrated Valley area school.

Don Wigglesworth—"Undoubtedly I was standing at the Delta Phi bar
buying my daily drink."

Norm Turner—"I was trying to keep people from turning on a light in a very strong storm."

Jack Parker—"I'm looking like hell at the Botany girl's party."

Ed Notes—"You made me an unen­ventful night. I was in bed."

Harry Bracken—"I was trying to convince people that I was sober."

Dine Philips—"I was trying to convince Bracken that he wasn't sober."

Saw Serendipity—"Dancing with a silly name at the Common Club
dance."

Lang Warren—"I was watching the Springfield-New Haven hockey game. While they were making the only two good points in the game was seeing a man about 12 tall."

 Ned Williams—"I was probably looking for another glass."

Dick Apple—"I was making the rounds of the first parties and deciding which one to go to, compared to the one at Sigma Nu.

Bill Roland—"I was on the roof on weekend."

Ed Albee—"I was arguing. No further thoughts."

Ezra Daron—"Visiting West Hartford friends."

Musical Notes

Don't give your lips to me and laugh upon your eyes;
You're like an April day, first warms
then cool,
You've got me feeling like a poor April fool."

Those rather burlal lyrics are from a Tin Pan Alley song called "When You Make Love to Me," which a fellow named Jim Hoy wrote. The song probably has Hit Parade potentialities, but the show is in the process of being revised and was finally revealed that he was none other than Jacob Hexfett, the violinist, who wanted to intrude on the singing of the verse to write a popular song.

Actually only a few years ago another celebrated violinist, Fritz Kreisler, perpa­ treated a musical hoax on an unsuspecting public. Many of the compositions were based on the names of Vivaldi, Corelli, Tartini, Paganini, and were so imitative that he had written himself. The musical world was astonisbed and many critics felt personally affronted. However, Kreisler explained that although he had long been in need of such music and he disliked seeing his name to an extent.

Violinists, it seems, have a penchant for this type of boxing. The legendary Paganini is said to have played a piece that none of his instruments, it seems, have a penchant for this type of boxing. The legendary Paganini is said to have played a piece that none of his instruments, it seems, have a penchant for this type of boxing. The legendary Paganini is said to have played a piece that none of his instruments, it seems, have a penchant for this type of boxing. The legendary Paganini is said to have played a piece that none of his instruments, it seems, have a penchant for this type of boxing. The legendary Paganini is said to have played a piece that none of his instru­
Time Out With Tweedy

Havmg spoiled with Williams to win the Little Three titles, power-laden Wes­leyan prepares to conclude an unbeaten, untied season by knocking off Trinity tomorrow. In the last 11 outings, or since Dan Jessen took over on the Hilltoppers, they have won eight times, and once, by 14 points to 13, in a game played here last Saturday. The Lord Jeffs were led by an amazing 35-6 victory as their four goals were driven into the Trinity net. In the second period, goal-scoring was scored, ending their scoring for the day.

Passed by Nick Neroni of the Wood, the Hilltoppers pushed into the two mariners of the second half. Neroni scored two goals, one of them a penalty shot, and Wood pushed one tally into the net. Again the team showed that passing is essential to winning a soccer game. Time and time again during the second half, the Hilltoppers were able to drive the ball deep into the vantage of Trinity errors, fought its way to the Wood, the Hilltoppers might have carried off a decision in their favor.

In a losing cause, Shorty Ehrman was in his old reliable form with some keenly played game of the current season. If the pasting had been better before the first part of the game, the Hilltoppers might have carried off a decision in their favor. In a losing cause, Shorty Ehrman was in his old reliable form with some keenly played game of the current season. If the pasting had been better before the first part of the game, the Hilltoppers might have carried off a decision in their favor.

In the last 11 periods before the game, however, and of the Fitchburg High team last Again the team showed that passing is essential to winning a soccer game. Time and time again during the second half, the Hilltoppers were able to drive the ball deep into the vantage of Trinity errors, fought its way to the Wood, the Hilltoppers might have carried off a decision in their favor.

The Jayvees will wind up their season at the Radisson on Saturday, Novem­ber 16, at 6:30 p.m. The Jesseem took these second half exactly as the game ended, the Jesseem took these second half exactly as the game ended, the Jesseem took these second half exactly as the game ended.

College View Tavern
215 Zion Street
GRINDERS AND SANDWICHES
CLARK'S MUG HALF SHELL
OUR SPECIALTY

THE BOND PRESS, INC.
Printers of the Tri­pold

49 Allyn Street
Hartford, Conn.

RAYS TAILOR SHOP
211 Zion Street
Pressing, Cleaning, Repairing
For All Trinity Students

HARLEY FLAT HEAD

A meeting place for Trinity students for three generations

For many years this hotel has been famous for fine food and good service.