Trinity Eleven Opens Season Underdog Against Williams On Field Today

Loss Of Regulars
And Soths Hurts
Front Wall Attack

With only three days remaining, Coach Dan Jones was forced to put his #21s to the test before the final scrimmage this afternoon in preparation for the Williams opener on Saturday. The game will probably be the last between the two rivals, the victorious, tied for third place in the NECC. These few more than likely to see a new, less fearsome foe in the future—Princeton's Tigers?

The outlook this year is not quite so bright with standouts such as Pon- nelly back and Crocker, "Whitey" Runkiewicz (rated by Col- lier's as one of the nation's top backs) on campus but not eligible, and prospective starters Ridolphi, Simt, Pickert, and Frosterich also ineligible. Add to these woes the fact that Harold Bancroft has been forced to quit the club for reasons of health; lineup Neil has departed from the club after being one of Castellin's rifts will sideline him with an injury. Wood, who know what that towel is doing hang- ing from Dan Jessee's belt.

So, for the seemingly hopeless side things before everyone starts predict- ing for the Williams, the obvious con- clusion that the Trinity scoring threat will have to practice on a new experiment with the line of scrimmage. First of these is the aforementioned Bancroft, who is expected to play with performances at Hartford High in the early '40s who had the entire city talking. Another newcomer in place of the expected star is Al Magnoli. This sophomore is a fleet-footed back who had the entire city talking.

However, for the most part only last year's vet will be on the field when the opening gun goes off. Start- ing at fullback, and captains for the season will be Marvin B. Baker, New Zealand Dominion Carillon to Play Chapel Bells Thursday Evening

Belwyn Baker, Dominion Carillonneur of New Zealand, will play the bells of Trinity College in a program of fa- miliar music at 8:30 tomorrow evening.

Down Fraternity Row

This column, dear freshmen, is supposed to be the one which will give you a bit of an "inside" look at what is going on behind those ornamental Greek letters. You see each fraternity has a special correspondent who is supposed to submit a bit of inside information to your hard working reporter. Generally, however, said correspondents are not going to bother with me and consequently I have to make up a few lines here and there in order to complete my assignment for the week.

So here goes.

It was fortunate this week in hearing from R. O'C. up at the Hall, or Dr. W. E. S. who, judging from the letters I have been receiving, appear to prefer to keep things to themselves. Notice that I said "appears"? R. O'C. (congratulations, Rob) just got a chance to attend the Delta Rho Psi initiation, where he instructed all the grades to... (Sorry, Rob)

But the three-year men balanced them off. You are always mentioned because you are in for what it is worth. Brothers: FRANK W. SHERMAN, '50
