Thirteen Seniors Elected to Intercollegiate Students Selected by Anonymous Committee

Thirteen members of the senior class have recently been elected to Who's Who among Students in American Colleges and Universities. The publication, which is printed in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, in Who's Who in America, will include the names and brief biographies of the following:

Robert Bacon, Richard Billingsley, Hollis Burke, John Coste, James Curtin, Richard Garrision, Kingston Howard, Benjamin Jenkins, Fredrick Klessner, Ned Kulp, Edward Lapham, Lionel Oberg, and William Van Van Lehn. An anonymous committee at Trinity previously nominated the recently confirmed candidates on the basis of their excellence and sincerity of scholarship, leadership and participation in extra-curricular and academic activities, their citizenship and service to the college, and the promise of future usefulness to business and professions.

Bob Boban, a member of Alpha Delta Phi, is in President of the Sophomore College and belongs to the Sophomore Dining Club. His was a Sophomore at Trinity.

Mike Billingsley, President of the Sophomore College, and Billings, is in Editor-in-Chief of the Triton.

James Curtin, basketball player, belongs to the Sophomore Club and the Sophomore Greek. He is in the Sophomore Fraternity Council and has also been a Senator and Secretary of the Sophomore class for two years.

Ben Jenkins, President of the Sophomore Class, is a member of the Sophomore Greek. He is in the Sophomore Fraternity Council and has also been a Senator and Secretary of the Sophomore class for two years.

Columbia Dean Asks Abolition of Undergrad Pre-Medical Education

Calling for the abolition of "pre-medical" education in the nation's colleges and universities, Dr. William C. Rappleye, dean of Columbia University's College of Medicine, declared "there is no such thing as a pre-medical student, and that students who plan to enter professional schools in the future should not be labeled as pre-medical students.

Dr. Rappleye was introduced by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who said: "Rappleye says that the college preparatory course in the liberal arts is not only a preparation for health fields, but should be directed to the objective of providing a cultural education as the particular institution can give.

THE TRIP TRIP

THE REVIEVER
By James Van Nist

"The Male Animal" is an unrathered uptake play for a college group in progress. The game is one of realism, and its portrayal of the play's theme is given very skillful and expert delineations of the parts. The play, which is a very short play and is referred to as "The Male Animal," is revealed as a rather awkwardly combined. The play, under any circumstances, is a very stylish one and almost too perfect.

In Memoriam...

In the retory of his church at 120 Sigourney Street in Hartford, Rev. David Bickford, for over 50 years rector of the Trinity Episcopal Church, and a close friend of the family, died on Saturday, November 11, as he prepared his sermon for the next morning. A graduate of the Class of 1907 at Trinity, and for many years rector of the Trinity Episcopal Church, Dr. Cunningham was one of the most beloved clergy in the greater Hartford area. So active a man was Dr. Cunningham that no one would have predicted his passing in the numerous fields in which he pledged his untiring efforts. He was president of the Board of Directors of the Connecticut League of Hospitals, a member of the Board of Visitors of the Veterans Hospital in Newington, and a frequent visitor to the Connecticut State Prison, hospital, and orphanage.

Born in 1887 in Watertown, he was graduated from Trinity in 1910. He married his wife, Miss Margaret Turner, in 1910. They had two children, John and James. He was a member of the Inter-fraternity Pledge Council from 1907 at the observance of Dr. D. A. Fisher, assistant dean of engineering and faculty advisor to the organist in the chapel at the University of Washington.

The Inter-fraternity Pledge Council formed as an effort to keep food near load by keeping the fraternity culture directed by the dean of Liberal Arts. The first significant recordings that Colman Hawkins was later to become the idol of all proponent of the jazz saxophone. He has recorded for the last thirty years with such bands as the Mamouy Band, the Hot Licks and the Jazz World. He was born in 1907 in Watertown, Missouri, and was one of the first significant players of the tenor saxophone. His style is characterized by its smoothness and the melody of his playing. He has been associated with many prominent bands, including the famous Mound City Boys, the famous Mound City Band, and the famous Mound City Orchestra. Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 6...THE TURTLE

"I should never have stuck my neck out!"

They had our slow-moving brother moving at too fast a pace with those quick-trick cigarette tests! A fast puff . . . a swift sniff . . . a quick inhale . . . rapid exhale. Terrapin's head was spinning—didn't know if he was coming or going! But he slowed down to his own speed—decided there was no need to rush. After all, he figured, how could anyone possibly prove cigarette mildness so fast?

And he was right, too! That's why we suggest:

The sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to smoke Camels as your steady smoke—on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) we believe you'll know why . . .

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

Trinity Grid Season Ends Thursday; Tufts Provides Opposition at 11 a.m.

By Ted Oxholm

The small college grid spotlight will be focused here, on Trinity Field, Thanksgiving Day when the Hilltoppers close their 1500 season, with Tufts. The Jumbos, under veteran coach Fred Ellis, are presently leading their opposition with 4 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie.

Although they lost to undefeated New Hampshire, they scored more touchdowns against them than any other team this year.

The Jumbos boast an effective pass defense supported by co-captain Len Knox, but their aerial attack is weak. Three-fourths of their 105 points have been scored on the ground. Their most outstanding ball carrier is left half-back Dan Bennett. Dan's reception is magnificent and he has averaged nearly 5 yards per try effectively this fall.

Quarterback Bill Cox is one of this year's stars, too. The beefy line has been strong all year on both platforms. Co-captain and center, Andy Forti, heads this unit composed of 11 returning lettermen. Left guard Gus Schneider is starring in his fourth season at that position.

The Moifordmen are leading in the series 4 games to 3 but Trinity won last year 6 to 0, when Dick Allen scored on a pass from Loder.

Dekes Subdue Sigma Nu 7-2 to Capture Intramural Touch Football Championship

By Bill Whitelaw

This week climaxied a very spirited intramural football season. Last week's Sigma Nu victory over Brownell by 1-0 was not only a prelude to this week's excitement. Brownell's passing attack was held to one. T. D. Sigma Nu's triumph was short-lived, however, as the American League champions, the Dekes, slipped past in a close game, 7-2, for the Trinity College championship.

In other playoff contests, Brownell faced the second-place American League team, Delta Psi, in a battle for third place. The game ended in a tie, 1-1, but their good fortune was short-lived as Rex of the University scored two points in the last quarter, Dave Clemmer ground. Their most outstanding ball carrier is left half-back Dan Bennett.

Freshman Booters Whip Wesleyan Schedule Ends With Team Unndefeated Stolfus, in First Year as Coach, Has Great Season By David Fisher

In a thrilling game featured by fighting, last-ditch defensive stands, the Trinity Fresh Soccer team clinched an undefeated season by winning the "tough one" against Wesleyan, 3-2.

Center forward Kennedy scored each of the first three periods to give the Mocs a three to nothing lead, but Wesleyan's Broadiemen came back with two goals in the final period and only alert defensive play by the fullbacks and goalie Ed Smith prevented further scoring as Wesleyan controlled the play for the remainder of the game.

Trinity kept the ball in front of Wesleyan's goal throughout the entire first half, but the only goal was scored on Kennedy's penalty kick in the first quarter. The Cardinals displayed an excellent defense.

Frosh Gridders Lose

By John Davenport

In the last game of the season, the Hilltoppers fell to the University of Massachusetts 20-6. Massachusetts scored in the first quarter on a blocked kick. The Bantams again lost the ball; this time on a fumble.

Trinity reversed the situation for a moment as they recovered a fumble, fumble in the second period, but their good fortune was short-lived as Rich of the University scored a Trinity pass and ran all the way for the T.D. The kick was good and the score was 15-6.

For most of the third period the two teams see-sawed back and forth until Mass. finally broke through and scored. The placement was good for the final 20-6 score. Trinity prevented a shutout, when, in the last quarter, Dave Clemmer powered over left tackle for a touchdown.
Trinity's varsity soccer team began an athletically successful week by trimming Wesleyan, 2-1, last Friday afternoon. The booters forewarned the Cardinals of their football brothers' Saturday conquest by confirming from behind in a grueling, hard-fought battle and winning on a last-minute goal by inside right Fin Schae.

Wesleyan's center, Taylor, started the scoring in the first period when he drove the ball just out of the reach of Trinity goalie Pat Scott. This was the only score of the period; the count was 1-0, Wesleyan, at the period's end.

In the second period Trinity's front line looked very poor, missing a number of good scoring opportunities. But, fortunately, the Trinity's defensive work was no excelsior, the Cardinals weren't able to do much offensive. At the 4:45 point Scott made a beautiful save on a shot by Wesleyan outside left Dave Jones, and at the 18:00 mark he turned in the defensive play of the day, squaring off against Taylor, who had a penalty shot right in front of the Trinity goal. Put saved what looked like a near certain score by, diving in front of the booted ball.

The ineptness of the MacDonald-men's offense continued in the third stanza although they continued to keep the sphere in Wesleyan territory most of the time. They missed three fine scoring chances, once on gooie Roj's save of Hadfield's shot, once when Tyre's boot just missed pay-dirt, and also when Maurice Fremont-Smith's shot bounced off the corner of the goal. It was still 1-0 when the third peri-d ended.

In the fourth period the Blue and Gold came to life, Ted Lautern, w made the first Trinity tally at the 7:10 mark to tie the game at 1-1. This set the stage for the most dramatic moment of this game and many other games. With just two minutes and thirty seconds remaining Schae!
footed the ball on the corner of the goal and into the net to provide the clinch-
