On Topic of Parthenoen

Professor Elga Carpenter of Bryn Mawr College will deliver the 26th Annual Moore Greek Lecture in the Chemistry Auditorium on November 29. Her subject will be "The Parthenoen.

Professor Carpenter is unparalleled in the United States in the field of Classical Greek Archaeology. As Director of the American School of Studies in Athens, Greece, she did work of commercial importance in reconstructing sections of the Parthenon. Her knowledge of the life and times of Herodotus and Pausanias, the Club alpine Greek styles through Roman times, and the art period have also enhanced her reputation.

Educational Background
Dr. Carpenter was born December 14, 1875.

The Humanistic Value of Archaeological Research: "One of the most pressing problems in Greek archaeology today is the question of the exact time and place where the ancient Greeks built their cities. This question has been a source of much discussion and disagreement among scholars." There is an increasing awareness of the importance of archaeology in modern times, with a growing appreciation for the value of the ancient world. This awareness is reflected in the work of scholars like Professor Carpenter, whose research contributes to our understanding of the ancient world and its influence on modern society.

At Last — A Traditional Ring

It is gratifying to note that in Trinity's 125th year, we have at last the ring that will become a traditional ring for us — wing...

The Senate's decision to promote, through a ring committee, a college hall infection is a well-deserved allusion to the Trinity Ring. It comprises a series of scattered and less effective efforts over the past few years which have resulted in each new edition of the annals of selection different ring designs from year to year. This short-lived results, however, provide them with the opportunity to develop a tradition in regard to Trinity College.

The Ring Committee, at the close of the academic year, has submitted to the Senate the following design. They have been under the influence of a number of influences, but in the end, the design which will be accepted by the Senate is the following:

The ring will be in the shape of a gryphon, the official Trinity College animal, with the words "Trinity College" inscribed on it. The ring will be made of 14-karat white gold and will cost $3.00 per year.

Another Football Season...

Another winning football season ends this week.

Another winning football season ends this week. Although it would seem a bit late in the game to play their past several seasons, Students and alumni must face this reality. We hope that the highly successful campaigns of the past few seasons will not make poor sportsmans of us.

Frosh Soccer Club Tops Wesleyan, 5-2; Lunt-to-Royston Combo Scores Twice

The Trinity frosh soccer team fought its way to a 5-2 win over the Wesleyan yellows on a soggy, muddy field last Thursday. Trinity opened its scoring attack early in the first period, with Dick Royston scoring on a pass from left-wing George Lunt. Lunt and Royston Score Again. Exactly one minute later, this same combination, Lunt and Royston, hit for another goal to give the locals a 2-0 lead. A few minutes after this, Bill Booth charged down the middle and netted the ball for the final score of the period, making the count 3-0, Trinity. In the second quarter, the respective defenses took charge, and neither team was able to score. Wesleyan Rallies. In the third quarter, the Cards came to life, both defensively and offensively. Goalie Kehn made two sensational stops, one with his head and the other on a penalty kick by O’Connell.

Near the mid-point of the period, Marshall scored the first Wesleyan goal. With thirty seconds remaining in the period, Tryfonkos of Wesleyan sent his penalty kick into the Trinity net, making the score Trinity 3, Wesleyan 2.

Close Scores. A short while later, Wade Cross scored one for Trinity, to give the Bantams a two-goal lead at the end of the quarter.

In the final period, neither club could score, until Lunt counted for Trinity on a penalty kick. The game ended soon after with the same score, Trinity 5, Wesleyan 2.

FRESHMEN LOSS TO MASSACH USETTS, 13-0

By Jim Mr. Alpine.

Trinity’s football team will be the odd-on favorite tomorrow as they travel to Madison, Massachusetts to meet the Tufts College Jumbos in the closing game of the season. It will be the 106th meeting of these teams and the second as a Thanksgiving Day contest. Last year Trinity was an easy victor, 48-6.

Despite the big scorelast season, this year’s game promises to be a more evenly matched affair with mid-season losses to Bowdoin 47-7, Northeastern 36-7, Middletown 14-13, Williams 7-6, Amherst 21-13, and New Hampshire 60-0.

Trinity has scored 198 points this season and has given up 160, for an overall team average of 1.2. Tufts, on the other hand, has scored 271 points and allowed 217, for a slightly better average of 1.27. It is interesting to note that Tufts has scored 90 points in the last three games, while Trinity has scored 271 in the same period.

The two teams battled on even terms through most of the first quarter, with Trinity having an edge at the half. Just before the close of the half, however, a hard charging Massachusetts lineman broke the tackle and blocked a punt by Bill Rhodes, and the “Redmen” took over on the Trinity 27-yard line, as the quarter ended.

Trinity Freshmen closed out a losing grid season last Friday, by dropping a close 15-9 decision to the “Redmen” of the University of Massach usetts.

Kowalski Scores.

Kowalski.

After eight second quarter plays, Massachusetts pushed across what proved to be the winning touchdown, as the quarterback, Kowalski, scored on an end run. The extra point was good, and the score was 7-0. The rest of the quarter was uneventful, and the half ended with the “Redmen” on top, 7-0.

After the kickoff, the two teams exchanged fumbles before Trinity made its first serious move of the day. Magelaster hit end Ed Lindenmeyer with passes good for 22 and 28 yards respectively. The Trinmen could not pass this advantage, however, and Massachusetts took the ball.

Hutson Excels.

Burton Excels.

From this moment until the end of the game, it was all Massachusetts, except for several nice runs by team captain John Burton. The “Redmen” ran through and around the Trinity men. With less than two minutes to go, Trinity had a chance to score, until Lunt counted for Trinity with a 72-yarder.

The first Trinity-Wesleyan game was played in 1896. The winner was Wesleyan, by an overwhelming score, 106-0. William Barbor, ’88, was the Trinity captain; he was the only man in Trinity football history to be elected captain for three consecutive years.

Soccer Team Ends Season With Loss To Yale, 1-0, Tie With Cardinals, 1-1

By Fred Marcell and Ted Oxholm.

Yale’s talented bodgers edged a courageous Trinity soccer team last Wednesday 1-0 on a rain-soaked field that had the players fighting to retain their footings rather than kicking goals.

Although Yale seemed to maneuver more efficiently in the sloppy mud than did Trinity, the Elis did not outnumber the men from the Hilltop. It was decided a game of who could retain control of the ball in their attacking zone. For, once in enemy territory, the mud managed to engulf the ball, and gave the defenders a ticklish time as they attempted to clear it out of danger.

Cardes Scores for Yale.

Yale’s score by Capt. Cordes came as a result of a move in front of the Trin goal as 18:08 of the final period. It could be termed as lucky inasmuch as it was the inability of the backs to clear the ball to the front of the Ellis forwards that maneuvered scoring thrust, for the goal was kicked from close.

After this score, Yale pressed the attack to its fullest but Capt. Cordes and his defense were impregnable. And, although Trinity had a few opportunities to tie the game up, the Yale goalie was equal to his task and stopped the Trin marksmen. With less than two minutes to go, Trinity had an out-of-bounds kick deep in Yale territory, but on a high kick in front of the goal-mouth none of the Trinity forwards could apply his head to the ball at close quarters which would have meant the equalizer.
