Men Chosen During Meeting Yesterday
To Be Initiated in Ceremony Next Week

At a meeting of the Connecticut Beta chapter of Phi Beta Kappa eight seniors were elected, it was an- nounced by Professor Blanchard Means yesterday.

All of the seniors elected by the Faculty members of the honor society had at least an 84 average for four years at college. They will be initiated next Wednesday.

Rev. Goodwin, a native of Hartford, St. Paul’s alumnus, is majoring in Economics.

Father Kellev, a Geology major, comes from Bayonne, and graduated from Trinity School. He is a member of Sigma Pi Sigma, Physics honor society, and to the Student Senate treasurership.

New York Joe is a native of Jamestown, High Majoring in Engineering at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and has been active on the Tripod, the Review, and WRTC.

Steve Guinan, a native of Hartford, and is now studying at R.P.I. under the five-year plan for Engineering students. While he was active in the Engineering Club and the Calla Club.

Ken Thomas from Bridgeport recently returned after having served with the armed forces in Korea. He is a pre-theological student and a member of the Sigma Club.

Dick Yeomans, an Economics major from New York, is a native of Hart­ town High. He is Managing Editor of the Tripod and is also active in the Camera Club and as baseball man­ ger.

Larry Barrett, from New Britain, started as a Physics major and by tak­ ing extra courses finished in two and one-half years. He was a member of Sigma Pi Sigma and is now at a Roadside under a fellowship.

Lord’s Table Discussed by Kelley
Of Anhurst in Newman Club Talk

Rev. J. Ralph Kelley, professor at Anhurst College, spoke to the Newman Club yesterday on the topic “The Christian at the Table of our Lord.”

Father Kelley then expounded the meaning and effect of this gift on the Eucharistic Catholic. The first effect is the gift of the Spirit, the sym­ bolic of the mystical body of Christ. The second effect is the gift of the Holy Spirit, who is under the fatherhood of God; that is to say that all men are brothers.

The second effect is the inner perspective of life affording to the member of the Eucharistic Catholic, the ability to solve life’s problems; “a shield” is provided for every aspect of ex­ istence.

“The Communion”

Finally, Father Kelley dealt with the social aspect of communion. The Speaking of Freedom . . .

By Henry Eckford, II

When Abraham Lincoln said "Give me liberty or give me death," he was speaking of the rights of the American people; in much the same way it may be said that Dartmouth students are being "freed" or "given death," if anybody ever bothered to say it, from the hundreds and hundreds of college students, and educators in this country who are always taking the other side of the fence. The result is that we may wake up some fine morning and not find our academic freedom even in the corner where it should be, and that won't be a happy morning, I guess.

I have signs of the times all over my room — white little cups that far us always the more distaste that are to follow.

Two students were shown out of Dartmouth for keeping girls in their room all night during the winter, and that is not all. There is a "subject" of the name of "Fame," "Fama," something or other that can be, and that won't be a happy morning, I guess.

STEPPING FORWARD . . .

Interfraternity Council has never a clearly defined self at Trinity. Calling it a tool of the administration, the power is really felt a need for an Interfraternity Council apart from the fact that fashion has declared it necessary for all colleges.

The fact is that the I.F.C. is the baby of the fraternities, and has acted upon a significant plan for reorganization of membership rules. The fraternities support it, but have derisively questioned its hazily interpreted functions and activities.

The Interfraternity Council has never had to dictate business and artistic policies. It is not a professional periodical. Surely no one can deny that more than a simple statement, you say? You should have read The Review. Dawes, heightened the issue by declaring that "He who does not freely admit that the Indians were indeed where they were by their own machinations, and although he didn't like it, he would deny us that right."

There are signs of the times all around us; little movements that are to follow. There are signs of the times all around us; little movements that are to follow.

Postscript to Brotherhood Week . . .

The Red Cross Bloodmobiles will make a second visit to the campus on March 15. When it last came to Trinity in October, students and faculty set a record for the Hartford area by giving 281 pints of blood in five hours. To break our own record and to best Wes­leyan, we will have given by noon tomorrow. Students are reminded by Al Miller and John Bishop, who are in charge of the campaign, that they need their permission to participate. Pledge sheets will be circulated this week.

Re[To the Editor of the Trident:

The Alpha Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon has been opened its eyes to the reality that it cannot continue to function as a step­child of the fraternities, and has acted upon a significant need for a cogent reorganization of membership rules. The need is to accommodate the hundreds of college students, and educators in this country who are always taking the other side of the fence. The result is that we may wake up some fine morning and not find our academic freedom even in the corner where it should be, and that won't be a happy morning, I guess.

The fact is that the I.F.C. is the baby of the fraternities, and has acted upon a significant plan for reorganization of membership rules. The motion calls for the election of representatives for each house for a one-year term, beginning May. It was also proposed that each fraternity elect two representatives, a senior and a junior, to the Senate. This motion was defeated, as the following year.

Under the traditional provisions of membership, the I.F.C. has had nothing to say about the term of office of its member representatives, only to find that new delegates, in accordance with the election policies of the separate houses, able to join the council at different stages of the term of the student body, and at the I.F.C. agenda has been discontined. By the time the Trin­ity term began there would be a representative one week be around for the next meeting.

The fault of this fragmented system is obvious. It is a weakness that the I.F.C. has managed to expose and to propose for its own reform. If the Interfraternity Council is not to outlive today, if it is not to outlive this year's events, it must be able to pass on to the next generation.

The Trident applauds the I.F.C. for this big step in the direction of making student representatives a re­spected, well placed, alert being in Trinity affairs. It is hoped that the fraternity will support it.

Liquor Ads Report Presented at Brown

The Brown University Campus Affairs Committee has approved a report which favors the reinstatement of liquor advertising in the student publications of the Providence university.

The report stated that the outlawing by the administration of such advertising was merely paying lip service to something which alumni and parents are behind. They felt that there was no moral issue involved, since the effects of such liquor advertising would probably be negligible.

The Committee went on to state that they felt the University's principal responsibility in this case was not to alumni, parents, or conservative prep schools—but to the students of the college itself. They would leave it up to the students to decide whether or not their publications should carry any ads for alcohol.

Another disadvantage which accrues to the college under the present ban is the loss of approximately $1500 in advertising revenue which, the report said, could well be used to support the college's activities.

The opposition within the committee agreed in substance with the report that the issue is not a moral one, and that the administration is considering alumni, parents, and prep schools in the ad ban. They believe, then, that the administration should...

Plans Completed for Laundry Service in Cook Apartment

Senate Committee to Study Other Colleges' Elections

As soon as the laundry room in Cook Can be equipped, Trinity students will have a more convenient and economical laundry service. At the Monday night Senate meeting it was reported that plans have been completed for the installation of three washing machines, an extractor, and a drier.

An attendant will be on duty eight hours each day to supervise the operation of the Bender equipment. The charge for nine pounds of laundry will be 55 cents. Shirts may be left and will be returned ironed at a price of 20 cents each. Within a month these new facilities should be available.

Also on the Senate's agenda was the subject of Senate elections. A committee was appointed to study election systems used in other colleges and to determine whether the

Fencers Top Wesleyan, 14-13; Lose First to Stevens Tech

Last Wednesday, in Alumni Hall, Trinity's fencers beat Wesleyan for the first time in five years. The score was 14-13, sweet revenge for last year's Wesleyan victory by the same score.

In foil, Dick Ellison won three bouts, George Kramer took two, and Ike Newell and Davy Lehrfeld each won one bout, and the two squads went into the epee matches tied eleven straight. Kramer won two also, at nine-all. The epee team came through with a 5-4 victory to clinch victory.

The Trinity frosh basketball team outclassed the Union College yearlings, 66-52, last Wednesday, at the Union Gym.

In the early moments of the game, the Trinity players had to struggle to get a foothold in the game. However, they were able to jump off to a slim 12 to 9 lead, which was increased at the half-way mark, as the Frosh, paced by Dave Wrinn played the first half and split their lead. However, the Hillos had too much of a lead, and although the Union men fought gamely in the final period Trinity lost only two points from their third quarter lead.

The Bantams hit their stride in the third quarter, increasing their lead at the critical moments of the contest.

In the fourth period with an all-court press the Bantams took over the pivot slot for fifteen of his total 19 points. He sank six out of twelve floor and was perfect on 3 foul tries.

The Bantam accuracy was at its peak as the shooters netted 35 baskets in 70 attempts, an outstanding team record of 47.6. The foul shooting was also improved with 25 for 35.

Glenn Kinna, top Union star, was held under control for the first time in seven games; he led his team with 18 markers.

The Bantams scored their fifth straight victory of the campaign without much trouble over a fierce but losing Tufts five. Charlie Wirtz was high man with 16 points, followed closely by Bruno Chistolini's 15.

Steady Scoring

Trinity trailed for three minutes, until Charlie Mazurek sunk his first field goal, the team went on to tie in 15-15 first quarter lead, lengthen it steadily to 23-23 at the half, and 50-35 at the three-quarter mark.

The Sports Barrel
By Alan Kurland

The final blow has been struck. It happened last Friday, when the newspaper reported that the New England Basketball Tournament had been canceled. Last week we said that nineteen colleges had boycotted the meet, and we also commented that "such things stand now, it looks as though this idea (the tournament) might die a slow but sure death."

We hope that the narrow-minded athletic directors who killed the idea realize that they have done a complete, if not a commendable, job. The official reason given for the cancellation was "lack of interest." Because of this a fee proposal has been rumed. The thought behind the New England meet was to create a feeling of unity among the colleges of the area. Last year a few schools went along with the tourney, and a number of good games were played. This year there will be no tournament. As a matter of fact, there will probably never again be a New England Tournament. The athletic directors who voted the concept of a get-together here, either knowingly or unknowingly, destroyed their own chances of ever getting the action into the "big-time" basketball. They disdained the idea because it was "not a transparently significant." But in forcing the cancellation they have perhaps kept New England basketball in permanent obscurity.

Holy Cross is going to the National Invitational in New York. We congratulate the Crusaders and wish them a lot of luck. And we'll be cheering for them to win, because they'll be the only New England team to play in a major league tournament for a long time to come. To the other schools we can only say our sympathy, because "they knew not what they did."

Something people have been hoping for, but not sure would happen, occurred last week up at Schenectady. Bob Downs, long heralded as Trinity's "Big Bob," playing only one half of the game, scored twenty points. Bob had and it is a pleasure to see. Baseball Team Holds Battery Practice

The varsity baseball team opened practice February 19 when the batteries turned out. Coach Dan Jeneise is still seeking with returning lettermen among the pitchers and catchers. Butlers returning from last year's team include seniors Dick McCrash, Bill Morse and Bob Fish Vugel. As usual the varsity team is over, hefty Charley Wilms will return to wind up our position.

I'm a sucker for a left hook!

Always a sucker for attractive bait, our aquatic brother went off the deep end and got caught on the quick-trick cigarette hook! But he wormed his way out when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness can't be tossed off reel lightly. Millions of smokers have found, too, there's only one true test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test—the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...
