Tripod Offers Openings To Interested Freshmen

Many Staff Members Lost thru Graduation; Training Program to Start in 2 Weeks

“Since many of our staff members were lost through graduation last June,” said President Donald Clark, “we are greatly interested in our editorial and business staffs,” said Tripod Editor-in-Chief Dick Blumberg in his address yesterday. He said he would urge all interested freshmen to try out for a position on this and also declared that experience is “desirable,” but not a “prerequisite.” Many interested freshmen are expected to enter the Tripod training program.

Training Program

“Our training program this year will be the best,” said the editor. “We plan to train our staff members, and the training will include the tutelage of News editors Charlie Gardner and Tom Ullman, as well as Professor Frank Ochslem.” Candidates for the editorial staff will be required to plan their articles in advance of the first day. Writing, headline writing, and page make-up are among the skills that will be given trial assignment immediately.

Business Manager Alden Valentine and Commercial Manager Jerry Buxton are in charge of advertising space. The advertising space will be divided among the four major areas of the college — the theater, the suburb, the city, and the country. In all of the college, advertising space is available.

Photographers Needed

Buxton stated that although his department is not interested in any applicants, he is particularly interested in anyone interested in photography. He said that he has heard that many of our topflight cameramen were lost during the period of our last survey. For Executive Director, Mr. Blumberg, who will be the Elected President, and Mr. Ullman, who will be the Elected President, will begin their election campaign next Thursday.

Eleven Freshmen Selected for Executive Committee

Eleven freshmen have been selected by a faculty-appointed committee to comprise the Executive Council of the Freshman class. The men were picked on the basis of their interest in student government.

The men on the committee are: Howard C. Barlow, John Calshem, Richard Elder, Edward Feinberg, H.T. Raymond Hoffman, David Markba, David Quackenbush, Joseph S. Purdy, Julian Winslow, John Wood, and Donald P. Zambelli.

The main function of the group is to act as a steering committee to plan various activities throughout the year. They also act as advisors to the freshmen to be elected in April next year, until class officers are elected later in the first semester.

Students, who will be handled by the group which are already planned ahead, will include a picnic supper and dance at Smith College on September 28, and also a dinner and dance at Conn College for Women on November 2, 1953.

Juniors Again Aid Frosh in Second Year of J.A. Plan

The Junior's Aid Program for Frosh will begin its 2nd year of existence this week. The first session of this year's program will begin at the end of the 2nd year of the 2nd year of the program. The students are given a list of books and supplies that they are expected to have.

OUR READING PUBLIC

Each year, in addition to bringing campus news to members of the faculty and student body, The Tripod serves hundreds of other readers in most of the 48 states and several foreign countries.

Each week you receive two copies of the Tripod, each with the actual fee being included in your yearly tuition. But our other readers, including alumni, parents, and other interested parties pay the nominal rate of $4.00 per year for which they receive 26 regular issues, plus our extra editions. They subscribe because we bring them news of their college, first hand, throughout the year.

As you start your college career, your parents are certainly just as interested in the affairs which transpire on the campus as you are. They'd like to know exactly what's going on. Let us keep them well informed.

Purchase a subscription in their name, and they'll receive our first regular issue next week.

Just write out the name and address, include $4.00 in cash or check, and address the envelope to TRIPOD SUBSCRIPTION. We'll do the rest, and your parents will thank you for keeping them "in the know."
